Sebald's writing as that of an expatriate author offers a fresh and productive approach to Sebald scholarship. In one way or another all 28 essays in this innovative bi-lingual collection take up the notion of Sebald's experience as an expatriate writer, be it in the analysis of intertextual, transmedial and generic border crossings, on the exposure to the other and the experience of alterity, on the question of identity construction and performance, on affinities with other expatriate writers, on the recurring topics of home, exile, dislocation and migration, or on the continuing work of memory to work through and to preserve the consciousness of a destructive past that has informed the childhood as much as the adult life world of the author. Billboard, 2000-03-11.
