Burgess,1994 A mixture of theoretical analysis and case studies from Asia Africa Europe Latin America and the Middle East this book examines non violent direct action political action economic sanctions and social movements as alternative remedies in the struggle for justice The authors thus address the basic questions that underlie current debates in international politics over the use of preventive diplomacy humanitarian intervention and international enforcement action Environment Evolution and Values D.P. Chattopadhyaya,2007 This book is mainly concerned with environment evolution and values terms which figure in its very title The basic underlying concepts of evolution are natural environment highlighted by Lamarck 1744 1829 Heredity and natural selection emphasised by Darwin 1809 1882 and genetic mutation first developed by Mendel 1822 1884 Though these three great life scientists brought to light three main components of biological evolution these were known and formulated by others for a long time Nature is ordinarily believed to be a world of facts governed by law of causality and values are said to be rooted in human freedom The author of this book has paid special attention to the so called value fact dualism with special reference to changing theories of evolution and an attempt has been made to show that the supposed dualism is untenable This book will be of interest to philosophers life scientists and social scientists It will be of interest also to the general readers Gandhian Approach to Welfare and Development Mr. Rohit Manglik,2024-03-23 EduGorilla Publication is a trusted name in the education sector committed to empowering learners with high quality study materials and resources Specializing in competitive exams and academic support EduGorilla provides comprehensive and well structured content tailored to meet the needs of students across various streams and levels Gandhian Alternative (vol. 1 : Gandhian Worldview) Suresh Misra,2005 Transformative Communication Studies Omar Swartz,2008-01-01 This interdisciplinary collection of essays charts intersections between communication cultural studies and a variety of emergent emancipatory and liberatory discourses Every essay attempts in one way or another to speak to the following questions What would a theory of liberation look like that is premised on a communication view of the world How would such a view expand and even redefine our understanding of liberation Finally how would such a view enlarge our understanding of what is collectively communally and organizationally possible In other words the chapters articulate what can be loosely considered a humanist theory of communication and praxis The goal is to move beyond discourses of liberation that are grounded in essentialist assumptions and to move the conversation toward an engaged criticism on cultural and social levels that facilitates and encourages progressive action This edited collection thus has as its goal a theory of human liberation grounded in communication as a resource for social and spiritual transformation The chapters comprise a mix of conceptual and applied studies that interrogate the communicative practices that naturalize our hierarchical world reifying and stultifying our moral and political imaginations As an antidote to this problem the contributors consider the importance of uncertainty and contingency in the development of human potential Rather than fearing uncertainty and contingency and allowing that fear to control us contributors argue that we should find within these conditions the source of our humanity and the strength to question and resist unjust social reifications When we do this we will rediscover the power of communication and regain an agency and control over our lives We then can start the difficult but humanizing process of constructing the world anew Case study exemplars of this construction thus are showcased Gandhi: The Father of Nonviolent Resistance Ciro Irmici, 2024-10-29

Mahatma Gandhi: The Passion for Freedom Fabricio Sales Silva,2025-05-13 Born in modesty but destined for greatness Gandhi transformed India s struggle for independence into a global spectacle of moral strength and nonviolent determination But who was this man who moved multitudes without ever raising his voice in anger Who was this being who defied empires without wielding a weapon He was someone whose passion for freedom knew no bounds whose life was a living testimony that the strongest currents are those we bind ourselves with our fears and prejudices Gandhi with his humble presence and indomitable spirit not only shaped the course of India s history but also left an indelible mark on the collective consciousness of humanity His phenomenal performance lay not in physical prowess or territorial conquest but in the monumental strength of his character the depth of his compassion and the unwavering belief in nonviolence as the most powerful weapon against oppression Get Mahatma Gandhi The Passion for Freedom and allow yourself to be transformed by one of the most thrilling stories of love sacrifice and determination the world has ever known This is not just a book It is an invitation to be part of an eternal journey in search of truth and freedom GATE Sociology [XH-C6] Sets of 2 Theory

Books As Per Updated Syllabus ,2024-10-13 Covered All 8 Chapters as Per Updated Syllabus Theory Cover in Detail Elaborate Each Every Topic Use Digram to Explain Design by Expert Faculties Nonviolent Perspectives Andrew Fitz-Gibbon,2025-02-04 This book is a compilation of essays addressing the central issue of humanity interpersonal violence and more importantly nonviolence as its antidote The essays trace the author s journey from early pacifist convictions influenced by personal experiences with violence to a nuanced understanding of nonviolence rooted in ethics love spirituality and critical theory Spanning over two decades the writings explore various dimensions of nonviolence from philosophical arguments and historical analysis to practical applications in parenting political resistance and care ethics The book brings together previously published works that have been instrumental in shaping the author's thinking making them accessible for scholars students and anyone interested in nonviolence With reflections on the works of Murdoch MacIntyre Gandhi and others it offers a comprehensive examination of nonviolence as both a personal practice and a social imperative Gandhi in the West Sean Scalmer, 2011-01-06 The non violent protests of civil rights activists and anti nuclear campaigners during the 1960s helped to redefine Western politics But where did they come from Sean Scalmer uncovers their history in an earlier generation's intense struggles to understand and emulate the activities of Mahatma Gandhi He shows how Gandhi's non violent protests were the subject of widespread discussion and debate in the USA and UK for several decades Though at first misrepresented by Western newspapers they were patiently described and clarified by a devoted group of cosmopolitan advocates Small groups of Westerners experimented with Gandhian techniques in virtual anonymity and then on the cusp of the 1960s brought these methods to a wider audience The swelling protests of later years increasingly abandoned the spirit of non violence and the central significance of Gandhi and his supporters has therefore been forgotten This book recovers this tradition charts its transformation and ponders its abiding significance Reading Gandhi Surjit Kaur Jolly, 2006

The Politics of the Crucified John C. Peet, 2021-07-30 Jesus died not peacefully in bed but on the cross the instrument of execution used by the Romans to keep potential disturbers of the established political order in their place Until the pioneering work of Jürgen Moltmann the cross has been the elephant in the room in Christian political theology This book explores the difference Jesus's crucifixion makes or should make to Christian political theology by examining the crucifixion in the theologies of the Mennonite John Howard Yoder and the liberation theologians Leonardo Boff and Jon Sobrino In the light of the cross and of the kenotic God revealed by the cross questions of political power are explored and a kenotic political ethic outlined In conclusion suggestions are made as to how the contemporary church can live out a cruciform or cross shaped political spirituality and ecclesiology
