The Discovery of Anxiousness Joana Serrado, 2023-12-04. Are anxiety or dread negative stages before freedom, a confrontation with humans' own mortality and finitude? Joana Serrado inaugurates anxiousness as a category of mystical knowledge in this innovative historical and philosophical study. Based on the life and mystical writings of Joana de Jesus, a Cistercian nun, intellectual disciple of Teresa of Avila, this study shows the cultural embeddedness of anxiousness, a feeling akin to the Portuguese term saudade (yearning, Sehnsucht). A mystical project that reshapes feminist principles of autonomy, agency and desire.

Emotions, Language and Identity on the Margins of Europe K. Giorgi, 2014-09-02. When a word describing an emotion is said to be untranslatable, is that emotion untranslatable also? This unique study focuses on three word concepts on the periphery of Europe, providing a wide-ranging survey of national identity and cultural essentialism: nostalgia, melancholy and fatalism; the production of memory and the politics of hope.

Fado and the Place of Longing Richard Elliott, 2017-07-05. Fado, often described as urban folk music, emerged from the streets of Lisbon in the mid-nineteenth century and went on to become Portugal's national music during the twentieth. It is known for its strong emphasis on loss, memory and nostalgia within its song texts, which often refer to absent people and places. One of the main lyrical themes of fado is the city itself. Fado music has played a significant role in the interlacing of mythology, history, memory and regionalism in Portugal in the second half of the twentieth century. Richard Elliott considers the ways in which fado songs bear witness to the city of Lisbon in relation to the construction and maintenance of the local. Elliott explores the ways in which fado acts as a cultural product, reaffirming local identity via recourse to social memory and an imagined community, while also providing a distinctive cultural export for the dissemination of a remembered Portugal on the global stage.
