Strangling Aunty: Perilous Times for the Australian Broadcasting Corporation Virginia Small, 2021-09-24 Drawing on a wealth of academic research statistics and interviews with key Australian media people including present and former Australian Broadcasting Corporation staffers this book explores the transitions of the ABC under various types of organisational re strategising governance and political shifts The book provides the reader with an authoritative narrative as to how the ABC has lost its iconic status in Australian society and unfolds how the ABC has strayed from its respected public charter which endowed the ABC with a distinctive and important role in informing educating and entertaining the Australian public Successive federal government funding cuts have shrunk staffing levels and services while it has pursued a corporatist model that mimics the trappings and practices of commercial media In that process it has become politicised and trivialised thereby threatening its demise The book is a unique and timely contribution at a time of dwindling interest for the funding of public assets everywhere There is no other book in the market that addresses the decline of the organisation the ABC and analyses the reasons for its demise within an organisational theoretical framework The book is written for an educated general audience with academics and media practitioners specifically in mind and has everyday applications for business organisations operating in the public sector by bringing together important findings of public funding budgets management and organisational strategies and evolution Who's who in Australia ,2007 Australian National Bibliography ,1996-12

Save Our ABC Morag Fraser, 1996-01-01 As part of the campaign to Save the ABC prominent Australians from all walks of life and all political persuasions have joined forces to produce a book that clearly outlines the case for maintaining the ABC's funds at their current levels Parliamentary Handbook of the Commonwealth of Australia ,2005 British Television Edward Buscombe, 2000 OXFORD TELEVISION STUDIES General Editors Charlotte Brunsdon and John Caughie Oxford Television Studies offers international authors both established and emerging an opportunity to reflect on particular problems of history theory and criticism which are specific to television and which are central to its critical understanding The perspective of the series will be international while respecting the peculiarities of the national it will be historical without proposing simple histories and it will be grounded in the analysis of programmes and genres The series is intended to be foundational without being introductory or routine facilitating clearly focused critical reflection and engaging a range of debates topics and approaches which will offer a basis for the development of television studies British television has been a success story One factor in this success has been the distinctive institutional structure of British broadcasting a mix of state regulated and publicly funded services with commercial services This book attempts to give a broad overview of British television by examining both the institutional framework and the programmes that it has produced A range of reprinted writings from the work of acknowledged experts is supplemented by specially commissioned essays on such key topics as sport and British television in the global context It will be a key text for all students taking courses on British television and Thinking and Doing Intersectionality in Sociology of Sport Lucie Schoch,Madeline Pape,Akilah Carter-Francique,2023-08-23 Intersectionality has become a defining paradigm for critical feminist scholarship Rooted in Black Feminism it recognizes the interlocking and mutually constitutive character of salient systems of difference and inequality such as gender race class sexuality nationality disability which together form a matrix of domination Collins 1990 While intersectionality has become a buzzword for feminist scholars and activists Davis 2008 it has also attracted criticism and debate There are unresolved questions concerning how it can be conceptualized Choo Strid Walby and Armstrong 2013 and put to practical use beyond the academy Cho Crenshaw McCall 2013 So too are scholars and activists questioning whether intersectionality has been overly commodified and appropriated by white feminisms and disconnected from its radical origins Nash 2019 In the wake of the COVID 19 pandemic and its intersectional impacts as well as the recent intensification of activism and protest related to racialized and gendered injustices the moment is ripe to revisit and reflect on the concept of intersectionality including within the field of sociology of sport While sport clearly lends itself to intersectional analysis Carter Francique 2017 to date there has not been a systematic effort to consider where and how the concept of intersectionality fits within the sociology of sport as a discipline It is precisely this project that this Research topic invites Taking up the three key axes that have organized intersectionality scholarship to date theory methods and practice we ask How has intersectional theorizing and analysis figured within sociology of sport to date What explanatory power does it offer as a framework for investigating power and inequality in sport and what are its limitations How might its application in the context of sport advance sociological approaches to intersectionality as a methodology Critically via what practices might intersectional empowerment be realized in sport What does activism for and the organization of intersectional justice in sport look like Given the breadth of issues research sites and theoretical paradigms taken up to date within sociology of sport we suggest that the discipline offers an ideal setting in which to unpack the complexity of intersectional processes and politics We suggest further that the current moment is ripe for such an intervention from the impacts of the Black Lives Matter and MeToo movements to the uneven effects of the COVID 19 pandemic on the sporting world intersectional analyses are needed to address the pressing inequalities that continue to characterize sport and animate the field Inside the Greens Paddy Manning,2019-08-19 A penetrating examination of the history and future of the Australian Greens The re election of a Coalition government after a lost decade of policy backflips and leadership volatility has redrawn the political landscape With a record quarter of voters abandoning the major parties at the last election what lies ahead for the Greens the third force in Australian politics In a nation divided over global warming rising inequality and national security can they agitate for forward thinking policy or will a refusal to compromise prove a stumbling block Inside the Greens investigates the personalities policies and turning points that have formed the party from the fight to save Lake Pedder to the Stop Adani convoy from heckling George W Bush to the fateful decision to vote down the carbon tax from party of protest to the balance of power in minority governments at state and federal level It also exposes the Greens as they are today a divided organisation reckoning with structural and strategic challenges Beset by factional showdowns and suggestions of internal sabotage can the party hang together Has it strayed too far from grassroots activism Can the Greens do politics differently and still succeed Journalist Paddy Manning draws on previously unrevealed archival material and interviews with party friends foes and key figures including Bob Brown Christine Milne Lee Rhiannon Adam Bandt and Richard Di Natale to weave a compulsively readable account of where the Greens are heading and what that means for Australia A monumental effort Inside the Greens manages to be not just a fine resource on a single party but of the times that produced them Crikey Erotic Justice Ratna Kapur,2013-03-04 Chapter 1 Introduction chapter 2 New Cosmologies Mapping the Postcolonial Feminist Legal Project chapter Liberal internationalism and the capabilities approach chapter 3 Erotic Disruptions Legal Narratives of Culture Sex and Nation in India chapter Narratives of culture sex nation chapter The Bandit Queen chapter Homosexuality chapter 4 The Tragedy of Victimisation Rhetoric Resurrecting the Native Subject in International Postcolonial Feminist Legal Politics chapter Cultural essentialism chapter Death by culture chapter 5 The Other Side of Universality Cross Border Movements and the Transnational Migrant Subject chapter Colonial subjects and the meaning of universality chapter The Other in the contemporary moment chapter b Equating migration with trafficking Congressional Record United States.
