Save Room For Me:

Save Room for Pie Roy Blount, 2016-03-15 Our best laid plans will yield to fate And we will say We lived We ate Roy Blount Jr is one of America's most cherished comic writers He's been compared to Mark Twain and James Thurber and his books have been called everything from a work of art Robert W Creamer The New York Times Book Review to a book to read till it falls apart Newsweek Now in Save Room for Pie he applies his much praised wit and charm to a rich and fundamental topic food As a lifelong eater Blount always got along easy with food he didn't have to think he just ate But food doesn't exist in a vacuum there's the global climate and the global economy to consider not to mention Blount's chronic sinusitis which constricts his sense of smell and consequently his taste buds So while he's always frowned on eating with an ulterior motive times have changed Save Room for Pie grapples with these and other food related questions in Blount's signature style Here you'll find lively meditations on everything from bacon froth to grapefruit Kobe beef to biscuits You'll also find defenses of gizzards mullet okra cane syrup watermelon and boiled peanuts an imagined dialogue between Adam and Eve in the Garden of Eden input from Louis Armstrong Frederick Douglass and Blaze Starr and of course some shampooed possums and carjacking turkeys In poems and songs limericks and fake or sometimes true news stories Blount talks about food in surprising and innovative ways with all the wit and verve that prompted Garrison Keillor in The Paris Review to say Blount is the best He can be literate uncouth and soulful all in one sentence
