Office of Education, 1973 Mapping the Future of Undergraduate Career Education Melanie V. Buford, Michael J. Sharp, Michael J. Stebleton, 2022-07-19 This timely book explores current trends and future possibilities for undergraduate career education the nature of the changing workplace and its impact on students in colleges and universities Built on decades of experience in career development and professional learning the editors raise and investigate multiple critical issues facing career educators in higher education today preparing students for the future of work exploring the increasing centrality of experiential learning in career education examining innovative paradigm shifts in career education and developing strategies for equity focused and inclusive programming for all students Reckoning with the effects of Covid 19 on the world of career development this book draws on contributions from leading scholars entrepreneurs and practitioners from across the fields of education business STEM and the humanities to offer an inclusive and innovation focused approach to supporting scholars practitioners and students involved with career education development and counseling for a new generation and a new world of work

Rethinking Careers Education and Guidance Ruth Hawthorn, Jennifer M. Kidd, John Killeen, Bill Law, A. G. Watts, 2002-11 This is the first book to cover theory policy and practice in all sectors of careers education and guidance provision It is an essential text for students in initial training those engaged in in service and higher degree work Career Development as a Partner in Nation Building Australia Wendy Patton, 2019-07-15 Despite examples of vocational guidance practice being evident in Australia since the mid 1800s there remains a spasmodic and patchwork approach to practice across the country For decades it is a field which has been paradoxically boosted and challenged by changing economic and political agendas Repeated international national and State reviews emphasise the vital nature of a systemic national approach to career development however authors repeatedly lament the lack of a sustained focus on career activity as a major national priority There is no broad comprehensive historical reckoning of the history of career development theory and practice in Australia since this early period Career development theory and practice in Australia has been forged in partnership with developments in an international context In documenting the shared history with other countries the author significantly adds to the body of knowledge on career development as a field in Australia and internationally The book provides new understandings about the historical development of this field of knowledge and in particular the challenging and cyclical nature of its policy history Career Development Policy & Practice: The Tony Watts Reader Tony Watts, 2016-08-23 Professor Tony Watts is a pre eminent figure in the field of career guidance He retired in late 2014 after a

50 year career in the field This single volume is dedicated to anthologising his work in a way that is accessible to students policy makers researchers and practitioners and contains Watts most enduring and key writings about career guidance Tony Watts writings comprise over 600 items which are currently scattered across journal articles books and reports with varying levels of accessibility Some of the most critical and frequently cited work is no longer in print
