Loom And Other Stories:

Free, and Other Stories Theodore Dreiser, 1918 Clever boys, and other stories Clever boys, 1848 More Stories I Lived Kenneth P. Campbell, Ken Campbell's first book of stories from his growing up years and early adult life. Stories I Lived was so captivating that it left readers with an appetite for more. More Stories I Lived will surely satisfy the palate and grab the imagination through the author's vivid folksy storytelling from a much simpler time when survival meant hard work and boys had the time to ride out on horseback and explore the rural wilderness. Campbell writes with humor and purpose as he tells the stories he lived and the hard learned life lessons that survival gave him. From picking his first tomatoes to raising a willful pet sheep from exploring a hidden cave to sledding uncontrolled down a steep hill from enduring a home style haircut to corralling a run away horse. His stories will make you laugh and they will even make you wince. Yet don't worry everything will come out all right in the end and you'll come away having enjoyed the journey and learned something with the author as well. More wonderful tales from a true treasure. Uncle Kenny takes us to a simpler time with smiles aplenty and great life lessons along the way. Eric Brown Ministerial Director Upper Columbia Conference.

A Companion to the American Short Story Alfred Bendixen, James Nagel, 2020-08-24. A COMPANION TO THE AMERICAN SHORT STORY A Companion to the American Short Story traces the development of this versatile literary genre over the past two centuries. Written by leading critics in the field and edited by two major scholars it explores a wide range of writers from Edgar Allen Poe and Edith Wharton at the end of the nineteenth century to important modern writers such as Ernest Hemingway William Faulkner F Scott Fitzgerald and Richard Wright. Contributions with a broader focus address groups of multiethnic Asian and Jewish writers. Each chapter places the short story into context focusing on the interaction of cultural forces and aesthetic principles. The Companion takes account of cutting edge approaches to literary studies and contributes to the ongoing redefinition of the American canon embracing genres such as ghost and detective fiction cycles of interrelated short fiction and comic social and political stories. The volume also reflects the diverse communities that have adopted this literary form and made it their own featuring entries on a variety of feminist and multicultural traditions. This volume presents an important new consideration of the role of the short story in the literary history of American literature. Edgar Allan Poe's the Tell-tale Heart and Other Stories Harold Bloom, Sterling Professor of Humanities. Ekbia, Bonnie A. Nardi, 2017-05-11 An exploration of a new division of labor between machines and humans in which people provide value to the economy with little or no compensation The computerization of the economy and everyday life has transformed the division of labor between humans and machines shifting many people into work that is hidden poorly compensated or accepted as part of being a user of digital technology Through our clicks and swipes logins and profiles emails and posts we are more or less willingly participating in digital activities that yield economic value to others but little or no return to us Hamid Ekbia and Bonnie Nardi call this kind of participation the extraction of economic value from low cost or free labor in computer mediated networks heteromation In this book they explore the social and technological processes through which economic value is extracted from digitally mediated work the nature of the value created and what prompts people to participate in the process Arguing that heteromation is a new logic of capital accumulation Ekbia and Nardi consider different kinds of heteromated labor communicative labor seen in user generated content on social media cognitive labor including microwork and self service creative labor from gaming environments to literary productions emotional labor often hidden within paid jobs and organizing labor made up of collaborative groups such as citizen scientists Ekbia and Nardi then offer a utopian vision heteromation refigured to bring end users more fully into the prosperity of capitalism
