McNamara, 2010-05-06 Los Angeles has a tantalizing hold on the American imagination Its self magnifying myths encompass Hollywood glamour Arcadian landscapes and endless summer but also the apocalyptic undertow of riots environmental depredation and natural disaster This Companion traces the evolution of Los Angeles as the most public staging of the American Dream and American nightmares The expert contributors make exciting innovative connections among the authors and texts inspired by the city covering the early Spanish settlers African American writers the British and German expatriates of the 1930s and 1940s Latino and Asian LA literature The genres discussed include crime novels science fiction Hollywood novels literary responses to urban rebellion the poetry scene nature writing and the most influential non fiction accounts of the region Diverse vibrant and challenging as the city itself this Companion is the definitive guide to LA in literature

Nat Love Barbara Lee Bloom, 2010 Born in a log cabin in Tennessee in June 1854 Nat Love was the slave of Robert Love He was about six when the Civil War began and after the slaves were freed following the war Love was ready to start living a new life out West where he could find work as a cowhand It wasn't long before he started showing his talents as a cowboy roping and herding cattle and learning to shoot a Colt 45 He used his skill in roping contests at rodeos where he earned the nickname Deadwood Dick and was proclaimed Champion Roper of the Western Cattle Country Eventually Love walked away from the life of a cowboy and worked as a Pullman porter becoming one of the most popular Though some may be more fiction than fact the vivid accounts in his autobiography tell tales of adventures with such characters as Billy the Kid Buffalo Bill Kit Carson and the James Brothers In this new offering readers can discover the truth and tall tales Nat Love spun in his self-penned work

The Love Israel Family Charles Pierce LeWarne, 2015-07-21 Winner of the Malstrom Award of the League of Snohomish County Historical Organizations In 1968 a time of turbulence and countercultural movements a one-time television salesman named Paul Erdmann changed his name to Love Israel and started a controversial religious commune in Seattle's middle-class Queen Anne Hill neighborhood He quickly gathered a following and they too adopted the Israel surname along with biblical or virtuous first names such as Honesty Courage and Strength The burgeoning Love Israel Family lived a communal lifestyle centered on meditation and the philosophy that all persons were one and life was eternal They flourished for more than a decade owning houses and operating businesses on the Hill although rumors of drug use control of members and unconventional sexual arrangements dogged them By 1984 perceptions among many followers that some Family members especially Love Israel himself had become more equal than others led to a bitter breakup in which two-thirds of the members defected The remaining faithful about a hundred strong resettled on a ranch the Family retained near the town of Arlington Washington north of Seattle There they recouped and adapted with apparent social and economic success for two more decades In The Love Israel Family Charles LeWarne tells the compelling story of this group of idealistic seekers whose quest for a communal life grounded in love service and obedience to a charismatic leader foundered when that leader's power distanced him from his followers LeWarne followed the Family for years attending its celebrations and interviewing the faithful and the disaffected alike He tells the Family's story with both sympathy and balance describing daily life in the urban and later the rural communes and explaining the Family's deeply felt spiritual beliefs The Love Israel Family is an important chapter in the history of communal experiments in the United States
