W. John Green

Los Muertos No Hablan:

Murder is My Business Brett Halliday, 2011-04-20 MURDER AT THE RIO GRANDE Ten years ago private eye Mike Shayne did a job for one of the richest men in El Paso digging up dirt on a boy courting the tycoon's daughter Now the daughter's back all grown up and dangerous And so is Shayne but this time it's to investigate murder

A History of Political Murder in Latin America W. John Green, 2015-04-27 This expansive history depicts Latin America's pan regional culture of political murder Unlike typical studies of the region which often focus on the issues or trends of individual countries this work focuses thematically on the nature of political murder itself comparing and contrasting its uses and practices throughout the region W John Green examines the entire system of political murder the methods and justifications the perpetrators employ the victims and the consequences for Latin American societies Green demonstrates that elite and state actors have been responsible for most political murders assassinating the leaders of popular movements and other messengers of change Latin American elites have also often targeted the potential audience for these messages through the region's various dirty wars In spite of regional differences elites across the region have displayed considerable uniformity in justifying their use of murder imagining themselves in a class war with democratic forces While the United States has often been complicit in such violence Green notes that this has not been universally true with US support waxing and waning A detailed appendix exploring political murder country by country provides an additional resource for readers

If I Die in Juárez Stella Pope Duarte, 2008 Duarte's latest novel is based on a string of real life murders in Ciudad Juárez in the 1990s Forced out of the house by her alcoholic mother 13 year old Evita takes to the streets glimpsing newspaper columns about the murders while struggling to survive Petra Evita's comely 19 year old cousin exchanges the country life for gritty Juárez to raise money for her ailing father An acquaintance of Petra Mayela a 12 year old Tarahumara Indian lives in an orphanage where her artistic talent is discovered

Science and Catholicism in Argentina (1750-1960) Miguel de Asúa, 2022-05-09 Science and Catholicism in Argentina 1750-1960 is the first comprehensive study on the relationship between science and religion in a Spanish speaking country with a Catholic majority and a Latin pattern of secularisation The text takes the reader from Jesuit missionary science in colonial times through the conflict ridden 19th century to the Catholic revival of the 1930s in Argentina The diverse interactions between science and religion revealed in this analysis can be organised in terms of their dynamic of secularisation The indissoluble identification of science and the secular which operated at rhetorical and institutional levels among the liberal elite and the socialists in the 19th century lost part of its force with the emergence of Catholic scientists in the course of the 20th century In agreement with current views that deny science the role as the driving force of secularisation this historical study concludes that it was the process of secularisation that shaped the interplay between religion and science not the other way around
