Religious Influences on Health and Well-Being in the Elderly K. Warner Schaie, PhD, Neal Krause, PhD, Alan Booth, PhD, 2004-06-15 What makes the book's approach so captivating is that each chapter is written by a different researcher in the study of religion and health. These researchers are responsible for significant portions of the existing literature and methodologies found in this field today. The versatility of the book warrants special mention. It is effective as a survey of work that has already been done on this topic. At the same time it serves as a wellspring of ideas for new research. This work makes a valuable contribution to the present understanding of research on religion and health. It also serves as a road map to help chart directions for future endeavors in the field.

Sociology of Religion This volume focuses on the ways in which religious institutions, religious practices, and religious organizations impact the health and well-being of older persons. Topics examined include the conceptualization and measurement of religion in late life, the relationship between religious coping and possible stress reduction, the role of forgiveness as an alternate mediator, how social class, gender, and race can influence the specific effect of religion, and religious institutions in a diverse aging society. Contributors include L. Chatters, K. Ferraro, L. K. George, E. Idler, S. McFadden, and K. Meador.

God, Faith, and Health Jeff Levin, 2007-07-20 In this groundbreaking book, Dr. Jeff Levin explores the latest compelling evidence of the connection between health and an array of spiritual beliefs and practices, including prayer, attending religious services, meditation, and faith in God. Drawing on his own and other published studies, Dr. Levin shows how religion's emphasis on healthy behaviors and supportive relationships influences one's overall health, and how the optimism and hopefulness of those who profess faith promote the body's healing responses. Filled with dramatic personal stories, God, Faith, and Health will alter the way you think about your body and your faith, and will show you the path to improving your own health through spiritual practice. Jeff Levin writes with incredible clarity, style, and passion. This book is a must-read for anyone interested in the religion/health connection, especially those wondering if such a connection exists at all.

Harold G. Koenig, M.D., Associate Professor of Psychiatry and Medicine, Duke University Medical Center, and author of The Healing Power of Faith. Beautifully written and packed with compelling scientific evidence for the spirituality/health connection. With the precision of a scientist, the courage of a true pioneer, and the artistry of a storyteller, Levin reminds us of what we can no longer afford to ignore: that our spiritual life matters mightily to our health and well-being at every level.

Bad Faith Tom Drake-Brockman, 2019-01-18 Jesus was murdered by the Jewish religious leaders whose power base was the temple of Jerusalem Saul of Tarsus later the Paul of Christianity was one of these and his brand of faith theology mirrored their theology of covenantal entitlement Thus Christianity's basic theological principles derive from those who killed Jesus This is just one of many challenging propositions backed with strong evidence that appear in this book Jesus like most Jews was attuned to faithfulness rather than pure faith to ethical behavior based on human empathy rather than metaphysical beliefs and rituals The central focus of Jesus was hesed the heart of the Jewish covenant with God which linked God's mercy to human compassion and forgiveness making both mutually interactive This hesed forgiveness was anathema to the temple's faux forgiveness and threatened its very existence Therefore Jesus came not to save us but to show us how to save ourselves Reinterpreting a key parable of Jesus in this light the Parable of the Tares Jesus can be most plausibly understood as an incarnation of Adam the original prototype human who God in Genesis appointed to oversee his creation and guide our spiritual evolution His mission was not about any sacrificial death but about establishing the spiritual humanism of Judaic hesed as the central purpose of human existence
