Dear Juliette Juliette Huxley, 1999 May Sarton's love for Juliette Huxley ignited that first moment she saw her in 1936 transcended sixty years of friendship passion silence and reconciliation In the breadth and variation of these letters we see Sarton in all her complexities and are privy to the nuances of her rich amitie amoureuse with Juliette the preeminent muse and most enduring love of her life The letters chart their meeting May's affair with Juliette's husband Julian brother of Aldous Huxley before the war her intense involvement with Juliette after the war and the ardent and life enhancing friendship that endured between them until Juliette's death While May's intimate relationship with Julian had not been a secret her more powerful emotions for Juliette had May's fiery passion was a seductive yet sometimes destructive force Her feelings for and demands on Juliette were often overwhelming to them both Indeed Juliette refused all contact with May for nearly twenty five years the consequence of May's impulsive threat to tell Julian of their intimacy The silence was devastating to May but her love for Juliette never diminished Their reconciliation after Julian's death was not so much a rekindling as it was a testament to the profound affinities between them

s readers the model of a woman who has supported herself as a writer of achievement who has made her way without the comforts of academic tenure grants or bestseller listings May Sarton Lenora P.
