Missing – Believed Killed

MARGARET HAYES
tells her own story

"Having read this astounding record of deliverance from the Congo rebels, I am more than ever convinced that beyond the heartbreak and the savagery of our bloodstained earth, there operates the all-wise sovereignty of the God who cares. This book is poignant and powerful in its stark simplicity."

Missing-believed Killed. [With Plates, Including a Portrait.] Margaret HAYES (of the Unevangelized Field Mission.),1966 The War Record of the 1/5th Battalion the Royal Warwickshire Regiment Charles Carrington,1922

Missing, Believed Killed Margaret Hayes,2002-01-01 In 1964 just eight years after being commissioned to work as a missionary in the Congo Margaret Hayes was caught up in the Simba rebellion Her miraculous escape from the massacre of all her colleagues her capture and harrowing experiences at the hands of the rebels and her eventual release are described in Missing believed killed Originally published in 1966 this new edition brings Margaret Hayes story up to date Book jacket

Historical Records Great Britain. Army. Queen's Own Cameron Highlanders,1952 Enemy Coast Ahead Guy Gibson,2020-11-12 A definitive new edition of a classic World War II memoir complete with more than 100 photographs and notes from leading historians Guy Gibson was the leader of the famous Dambusters raid and Enemy Coast Ahead is a vivid honest account widely regarded as one of the best books on the Second World War It also provides an insider s perspective setting down in clear detail the challenges that the RAF faced in the war against Germany s Luftwaffe Tragically Gibson died in September 1944 when his Mosquito crashed near Steenberghe in the Netherlands He was aged just 26 This new book has been published to mark the 75th anniversary of his death and includes an introduction by James Holland a historian and broadcaster It includes notes by Dr Robert Owen the Official Historian of the No 617 Squadron Association and many images that have never before been published Published in association with the RAF Museum Inspired the 1955 film The Dam Busters starring Richard Todd and Michael Redgrave Not the Slightest Chance Tony Banham,2003-02-01 More than 10% of Hong Kong s defenders were killed in battle a further 20% died in captivity Those who survived seldom spoke of their experiences Many died young The little primary material surviving written in POW camps or years after the events is contradictory and muddled Yet with just 14 000 defending the Colony it was possible to write from the individual s point of view rather than that of the Big Battalions so favoured by God according to Napoleon and most historians The book assembles a phase by phase day by day hour by hour and death by death account of the battle It considers the individual actions that made up the fighting as well as the strategies and plans and the many controversies that arose Not the Slightest Chance will be of interest to military historians Hong Kong residents and visitors and those in the UK Canada and elsewhere whose family members fought or were interned in Hong Kong during the war years Aeroplane ,1917 The Story of the Munsters at Etreu, Festubert, Rue Du Bois and Hullock Jessie Louisa Moore Rickard,1918 Aeronautics ,1918 St. George's Gazette ,1915 Flight ,1918 Bankers' Magazine, Journal of the Money Market and Commercial Digest ,1917 The Bankers', Insurance Managers', and Agents' Magazine ,1916 The Iron Cage Nigel Cawthorne,2013-04-15 A staggering 30 000 British prisoners of war liberated from German POW camps by the Soviets at the end of World War II were never returned home In investigating the fate of victims of the Cold War Nigel Cawthorne travelled to Siberia to follow their trail City of Coventry Roll of the Fallen Charles Nowell,2012-09-07 This is the alphabetical list of all Coventry men who died in the Great War With each entry is given unit date and place of birth place of residence occupation date of enlistment date and place of death and in many cases place of burial Against All Odds Stephen Wynn,2018-01-30 Walter Tull would have been a remarkable individual no matter when he had been born but to achieve what he did during the time that he did makes him even more remarkable He was an orphan at just six years of age and despite not wanting to his step mother Clara had no choice but to place him and his elder brother Edward in to a children s home in the East End of London As neither Walter or Edward had ever traveled outside of Folkestone before the upheaval must have come as quite a shock Two years after entering the home Walter and Edward were split up when Edward was adopted and went to live in Glasgow Walter s sporting prowess saw him play for top local amateur side Clapton Football club signing for them in 1908 but it was to be a short lived affair as by the following year he had signed as a professional for the prestigious Tottenham Hotspur Football Club making his first team debut against Manchester United In October 1911 Walter was transferred to Northampton Town Football Club where he would go on to play over one hundred first team games before the First World War brought a premature end to his career as a professional footballer With the outbreak of war Walter wasted no time enlisting in the British Army initially as a Private in the newly formed 17th Football Battalion Middlesex Regiment Further promotions followed and in no time at all he had reached the rank of Sergeant He was put forward for a commission and passed out as a 2nd Lieutenant on 29 May 1917 He went on to become the first black officer in the British Army to lead white troops in to battle and was fondly regarded by the men who served under him Walter was killed in action whilst leading his men in a counter attack against German defensive positions on Monday 25 March 1918 He died a hero He was well liked and respected by all who knew him Like many men of his generation his life was cut short for the greater good whilst in the service of his country so that others might prevail Slaughter on the Somme 1 July 1916 Martin Mace,John Grehan,2013-08-19 At 07 30 hours on 1 July 1916 the devastating cacophony of the Allied artillery fell silent along the front on the Somme The ear splitting explosions were replaced by the shrill sound of hundreds of whistles being blown At that moment tens of thousands of British soldiers climbed out from the trenches on their part of the Western Front and began to make their way steadily towards the German lines opposite It was the first day of the Battle of the Somme By the end of the day a number of the regiments involved had met with some degree of success others had suffered heavy losses for no gain whilst a few quite literally ceased to exist That day the old infantry tactics of the British Army clashed head on with the reality of modern warfare On what is generally accepted as the worst day in the British Armys history there were more than 60 000 casualties a third of them fatal In this publication the authors have drawn together for the first time ever all the War Diary entries for 171 British Regiments that went over the top that day a day that even now still touches so many families both in the United Kingdom and around the world The result will be a vital work of reference to the events of 1 July 1916 a valuable information source for not only for those interested in military history but genealogists and historians alike The Die-Hards in the Great War: Vol. 1 Everard Wyrall, 2013-01-21 The Die Hards is the nickname of the Middlesex Regiment earned at the battle of Albuera in the Peninsular War in May 1811 The Regiment was one of five that had four regular battalions before the outbreak of war it also had two Special Reserve battalions 5th and 6th and four Territorial battalions 7th to 10th During the course of the war another thirty nine battalions were formed making the Regiment the second largest along with the King s Liverpool though not all battalions survived to the end of the war twenty four of them went abroad serving on the Western Front Gallipoli Italy Macedonia Mesopotamia India Egypt Palestine Gibraltar and Siberia Losses amounted to 12 720 81 Battle Honours and 5 VCs were awarded The Middlesex were in it right from the start the first soldier of the BEF to be killed was L Cpl Parr 4th Middlesex on 21 August 1914 and the first officer to be killed was from the same battalion Major W H Abell at Mons on 23 August This is not a history that deals with each battalion independently there are too many of them The narrative describes the fortunes of the twenty four active service battalions with very good maps in the various theatres of war though mainly on the Western Front and on every page there is in the margin the date of the action or event being described and the battalion or battalions involved The first volume covers 1914 to the end of 1916 and the second takes up the story from the beginning of 1917 to the armistice including a chapter on operations in Siberia and Murmansk involving the 25th Battalion which didn t get home till September 1919 Speaking of his battalion 25th the CO said One and all behaved like Englishmen the highest eulogy that can be passed upon the conduct of men Sentiments like that expressed today would almost get you clapped in irons There is no Roll of Honour nor list of Honours and Awards There is a very useful appendix listing all the active service battalions with the brigades and divisions to which they were allocated with any subsequent changes and the theatres in which they served The Die-hards in the Great War: 1914-1916 Everard Wyrall, 1926 The Die Hards is the nickname of the Middlesex Regiment earned at the battle of Albuera in the Peninsular War in May 1811 The Regiment was one of five that had four regular battalions before the outbreak of war it also had two Special Reserve battalions 5th and 6th and four Territorial battalions 7th to 10th During the course of the war another thirty nine battalions were formed making the Regiment the second largest along with the King s Liverpool though not all battalions survived to the end of the war twenty four of them went abroad serving on the Western Front Gallipoli Italy Macedonia Mesopotamia India Egypt Palestine Gibraltar and Siberia Losses amounted to 12 720 81 Battle Honours and 5 VCs were awarded The Middlesex were in it right from the start the first soldier of the BEF to be killed was L Cpl Parr 4th Middlesex on 21 August 1914 and the first officer to be killed was from the same battalion Major W H Abell at Mons on 23 August This is not a history that deals with each battalion independently there are too many of them The narrative describes the fortunes of the twenty four active service battalions with very good maps in the various theatres of war though mainly on the Western Front and on every page there is in the margin the date of the action or event being described and the battalion or battalions
