In Touch with the Word: Cycle B for Ordinary Time Lisa-Marie Calderone-Stewart, 2000-09-16 We often go to church on Sunday then lose touch with God's word amid the craziness of our weekly routine This series helps the entire family stay in touch with the word proclaimed in liturgy For every Sunday and holy day of the year each book offers three sets of prayerful reflections that parallel the lectionary one for adults one for teens and one for small children A thematic index is included for easy reference These books are ideal for liturgy planning and they're perfect for helping the entire family stay focused on prayer all week long In Touch with the Word Cycle B for Ordinary Time is for the year 2009 and every third year thereafter

Call to Mission and Perceptions of Proselytism John Baxter-Brown, 2022-04-13 Proselytism remains one of the most divisive issues in global Christianity jeopardizing many ecumenical initiatives and projects Almost all traditions accuse others of proselytism but none readily confess to it as one tradition's mission and evangelism is another's proselytism This work brings together for the first time significant formal statements from Christian bodies and churches alongside articles from leading commentators in this hotly contested issue It gives clergy academics and students a vital resource in understanding the perspectives of different traditions and therefore the opportunity to study and understand viewpoints and opinions from competing perspectives The volume originates in a process of work commissioned by the World Pentecostal Fellowship the World Council of Churches the World Evangelical Alliance and the Roman Catholic Church under the auspices of the Global Christian Forum We discovered that there are no easy answers that resolve the tensions and debates about proselytism but through listening and understanding different voices new opportunities for establishing constructive relationships can and do emerge

A Pastor's Highways on the Way to the New Jerusalem Arthur Jarrell Tankersley, 2021-10-29 David Brooks wrote in The Second Mountain A pilgrimage is a journey undertaken in response to a story My life story has been lived in response to God's story revealed in the Bible This book is about the highways I have traveled in obedience to the Voice of the Holy breaking into my successes and failures desires and doubts and leading me by the power of grace in ever merciful and transforming ways If you are drawn to my story it is because the same Voice is calling you to share the adventure of a lifetime in following Jesus as he set his face to go up to Jerusalem Through my story may you hear Aslan s Christ s invitation Come further in Come further up This story travels by way of the highways to Zion Ps 84 5 7 Those highways become deeply paved in the hearts and minds of those who work for the healing of the world and who bring the blessings of the reign of God to barren dry and thirsty lands

The Pentecostal Mission in Palestine Eric

Nelson Newberg,2012-06-13 The Pentecostal mission in Palestine is a virtually unknown episode in the history of Pentecostalism Its story begins in 1906 at the Azusa Street Revival from which missionaries were sent to Palestine In its first thirty years the Pentecostal mission in Palestine gained a foothold in Jerusalem and expanded its reach into Jordan Syria and Iran It was severely tested and lost traction during the tumultuous period of the Arab Revolts World War II and the Partition Crisis With the catastrophic war of 1948 the Pentecostal missionaries fled as their Arab clients were swept away in the Palestinian Diaspora After 1948 a valiant attempt was made to revive the mission but only with relative success Although the Pentecostal missionaries failed in their objective of converting Jews and Muslims they were eyewitnesses of the formative events of the Arab Israeli conflict Newberg argues that the Pentecostal missionaries functioned as brokers of Pentecostal Zionism He offers a postcolonial assessment of the Pentecostal missionaries crediting them for advocating philosemitism yet bringing them up short for disregarding the civil rights of Palestinian Arabs espousing Islamophobia and contributing to the forces working against peace in the Holy Land
