Rascals diary - Part 2 Beatrice Kobras,2024-03-07 I am Rascal Puss For a while I thought my name was Who s there because my people always cried out in delight Who s there whenever they saw me And they saw me very often I was pretty angry about a stupid name But now I know that my name is Rascal and I am reassured I like Rascal much better than Who s there I d hate to be called that Yesterday I turned three months old and didn t get a birthday party with cake and paper hats because mistress says that you only have a birthday once a year and not every month I think that s pretty stupid I don t even know how long a year is And a year sounds pretty long But in the evening at least I managed to bite off her bread in an unobserved short moment Not like cake but better than nothing I have two people a dog a billion toy mice and balls a basket everywhere and I have acquired a few more that shouldn t be mine and scratching trees with dangling toys on them and I am busy all day long clearing the houseplants of their leaves so that I always have something new to hunt and I follow mistress absolutely at every turn which is quite exhausting with her eternal back and forth But then I cuddle up to the dog and we take a nap together Oh yes and I am quite busy with eating because I still have to grow Because when I grow up I want to be a lion Master once decided that he had a cat hair allergy so mistress told him that he was only allergic to the nonsense I do all the time But he got used to it in the meantime and he loves me very much , Sir George Tressady Mrs. Ward,1896
