pan European artistic styles and approaches The categorization of Romanesque by region was a cornerstone of 19th and 20th century scholarship albeit one vulnerable to the application of anachronistic concepts of regional identity Individual chapters explore the generation and reception of forms the conditions that give rise to the development of transregional styles and the agencies that cut across territorial boundaries There are studies of regional styles in Aquitaine Castile Sicily Hungary and Scandinavia workshops in Worms and the Welsh Marches the transregional nature of liturgical furnishings the cultural geography of the new monastic orders metalworking in Hildesheim and the valley of the Meuse and the links which connect Piemonte with Conques The Regional and Transregional in Romanesque Europe offers a new vision of regions in the creation of Romanesque relevant to archaeologists art historians and historians alike formlos - formbar Magdalena
