The Handbook of Journal Publishing Sally Morris, Ed Barnas, Douglas

LaFrenier, Margaret Reich, 2013-02-21 The Handbook of Journal Publishing is a comprehensive reference work written by experienced professionals covering all aspects of journal publishing both online and in print. Journals are crucial to scholarly communication but changes in recent years in the way journals are produced, financed, and used make this an especially turbulent and challenging time for journal publishers and for authors, readers, and librarians. The Handbook offers a thorough guide to the journal publishing process from editing and production through marketing, sales, and fulfillment, with chapters on management, finances, metrics, copyright, and ethical issues. It provides a wealth of practical tools, including checklists, sample documents, worked examples, alternative scenarios, and extensive lists of resources which readers can use in their day-to-day work. Between them, the authors have been involved in every aspect of journal publishing over several decades and bring to the text their experience working for a wide range of publishers in both the not-for-profit and commercial sectors.

The Art of Academic Editing: A Guide for Authors and Editors Cara M. Jordan, Leslie Castro-Woodhouse, 2024-01-01

Whether you're approaching academic editing as an author or an editor, this book will demystify the key stages in the editorial process. The Art of Academic Editing is the first full-length guide to the different types of editorial services and when they happen in the life cycle of a scholarly text. It will facilitate more effective collaboration between authors and editors as the field of academic editing expands. The book covers developmental editing, book coaching, working with international authors, working with graduate students, line editing, copyediting, indexing, proofreading. The eight contributing authors, experts in their fields, explain the nuts and bolts of their editing practice using real-life models, sharing their tips and advice for both scholarly writers and editors. The book is written in an engaging, nontechnical style to make it easier for all readers, regardless of their background or editing experience, to understand the academic editor's methods, skills, and training. With a glossary of common terms and an online resource guide, this is the essential handbook both for scholarly editors and the authors working with them. Co-edited by Cara M. Jordan and Leslie Castro-Woodhouse. The Art of Academic Editing's contributing authors also include Nancy Burkhalter, Cameron Duder, Pamela Haag, Caroline Malloy, Tess C. Rankin, Elizabeth H. Stern, and Maria Snyder.
