Nyamnjoh, Inge Brinkman, 2009 We cannot imagine life now without a mobile phone is a frequent comment when Africans are asked about mobile phones They have become part and parcel of the communication landscape in many urban and rural areas of Africa and the growth of mobile telephony is amazing from 1 in 50 people being users in 2000 to 1 in 3 in 2008 Such growth is impressive but it does not even begin to tell us about the many ways in which mobile phones are being appropriated by Africans and how they are transforming or are being transformed by society in Africa This volume ventures into such appropriation and mutual shaping Rich in theoretical innovation and empirical substantiation it brings together reflections on developments around the mobile phone by scholars of six African countries Burkina Faso Cameroon Ghana Mali Sudan and Tanzania who explore the economic social and cultural contexts in which the mobile phone is being adopted adapted and harnessed by mobile Africa
