Mobilization For Evangelism:

Mobilization for Evangelism Mitch Medina, 1995      Mission in Motion Jay Matenga, Malcolm Gold, 2016-08-25

Never before has the phenomenon of mission mobilization been so broadly researched. In a vein similar to Too Valuable To Lose and Worth Keeping the World, the Evangelical Alliance Mission Commission commissioned a research team to investigate what motivates people into mission service from around the globe. Mobilization practitioners recorded, translated, and transcribed hundreds of hours of interview dialogue that explored reasons for mission involvement from Eastern Europe, Western Europe, North and South America, Oceania, East Asia, South Asia, and East Africa. The data was subsequently analyzed to draw out common themes, and Mission in Motion presents the results of this research. This book is the first definitive exploration of the recent history, ministries, and methods of mission mobilization. The evangelical missions community is expending much energy and resource trying to raise up workers for the Lord's harvest, but is it helping? Are the means, models, methods, and mechanisms being applied to this end effective? What does influence people to greater involvement in mission, whatever they understand mission to be? Furthermore, what hinders it? In addressing these questions, Mission in Motion allows the interviewed respondents to speak for themselves in an open and frank manner. Some results confirm common beliefs, but others may surprise you.

Evangelism Ellen G. White, 2021-04-11

In Evangelism, Ellen G. White presents a profound exploration of the principles and practices that underpin effective evangelistic outreach. Written in her characteristic clear and accessible style, this book weaves personal anecdotes, scriptural insights, and theological reflections to inspire readers to engage in the mission of spreading the Gospel. White articulates the urgent need for a heartfelt approach to evangelism, emphasizing the transformative power of personal testimony and the importance of community in nurturing faith. Set against the backdrop of the late 19th-century religious revival, her work reflects the growing emphasis on social responsibility and personal piety during this era. Ellen G. White, a co-founder of the Seventh-day Adventist Church, was a prolific author and a passionate advocate for health reform, education, and humanitarian work. Her life experiences as a religious leader and her strong commitment to scriptural authority deeply influenced her writings. Evangelism is born from her desire to equip believers with the tools necessary for sharing their faith, stemming from her own experiences of witnessing the transformative impact of spiritual outreach and community engagement. For readers seeking to deepen their understanding of evangelistic methods and their theological underpinnings, Evangelism serves as an essential resource. White's insights will inspire both seasoned ministers and laypeople alike to embrace their role in the mission of the Church, fostering a renewed commitment to living and sharing the Gospel within their communities. In this enriched edition, we have carefully created added value for your reading experience. A succinct Introduction situates the work's timeless appeal and themes. The Synopsis outlines the central plot, highlighting key developments without spoiling critical twists. A detailed Historical Context immerses you in the era's events and influences that shaped the writing. An Author Biography reveals milestones in the trainer of others Reach Teach Send is not just discipleship and missions theory but has been tested and lived out in the trenches in a North American context and abroad bearing and multiplying good kingdom fruit The stories and resources shared in this book will inspire others to find and fulfill their role in God's Great Commission Kenny Chinn Senior Pastor Northside Church Wilmington NC I have had the privilege of being Kevin and Jan's pastor since 2005 I have journeyed with them from the beginning of their call to missions to today I watched their struggle of coming to terms with what God was asking them to do and the progression from Kevin's initial acceptance and Jan's reluctance to their final acceptance as a couple Through it all they have grown sacrificed learned surrendered and leaped by faith into the arms of God for their future When considering a book of this nature would you rather learn from an academic perspective or from someone who has skin in the game What Kevin has written in these pages is not speculation but rather experience The book is practical easy to read and filled with effective advice for the person who seeks to do more for the Lord I certainly recommend the book but more than that I recommend those who have lived out its pages in real life Don't miss out on the wisdom available to you in these pages It did not take a pen to write them it took a lifetime

Developing an Evangelistic Strategy for Harvest Community Church in Indiana, Pennsylvania Charles Roger Leslie (Jr.), 2018 This project was to develop a plan for increasing evangelism and mission mobilization at New Birth Cathedral of Praise NBCP in Sherman Texas The process involved assessing the congregation's knowledge of evangelism and missions in order to develop a curriculum for evangelism and missions That process then led to the establishment of a mobilization plan to reach Sherman Texas and beyond Chapter 1 introduces the ministry context of NBCP along with the rationale purpose goals research methodologies definitions and delimitations of the project Chapter 2 provides the biblical and theological basis for evangelism and mission mobilization The gospel of Matthew provides three different models for advancing the gospel Matthew 9:36-38 provides a model for gospel motivation Matthew 10:1-23 provides a model for laborers in evangelism and Matthew 28:19-20 provides a model for laborers to be mobilized These passages serve as the basis for increasing evangelism and mission mobilization Chapter 3 addresses the practical issues related to how the church must be equipped to communicate the gospel within the anti-Christian culture Chapter 4 details the curriculum and lesson plans Chapter 5 concludes with an overall evaluation of the project and suggestions for improvement and further development

Mobilizing a Great Commission Church for Harvest Thomas P. Johnston, 2011-05-23 Mobilizing a Great Commission Church for Harvest addresses practical aspects of evangelism in the local church with the voices and views of nineteen current Southern Baptist professors of evangelism They address important topics to local church evangelism such as Invitations with integrity and Preparing for Spiritual Warfare Key leaders and professors write in their areas of expertise For examples Alvin Reid writes on Mobilizing Students David Wheeler on Servant Evangelism Josef Solc on Sports Evangelism and Darrell Robinson on The Evangelist In addition the book begins and ends with two different applications of Matthew's Great Commission Mobilizing a Great Commission Church for Harvest is a gold mine of information for both pastor and deacon as it is for students considering the importance of evangelism to local church ministry. It is fresh, new, and true as all of its authors teach at SBC affiliated schools and are grounded in the Bible as the inerrant Word of God. Mission Theology: 1948-1975 Years of Worldwide Creative Tension Rodger Bassham, 2002-08-19. This volume seeks to be both fair and comprehensive. Its critical insights do not prevent the endorsement of an ecumenical latitude consistent with our biblical faith. It was written for those who are determined to listen and learn from all whom God has manifestly received and called to holistic mission in today's world. Arthur Glasser, Professor, Fuller Theological Seminary. Bassham's comprehensive study of developments in mission theology between 1948 and 1975 is the most thorough and reliable work available on the subject. The book is invaluable for an understanding of the crucial issues in world mission during this turbulent period. Gerald Anderson, Director, Overseas Ministries Study Center. Bassham has written what ought to become the standard textbook for those seeking to acquire a comprehensive long range perspective on developments in missiology in recent decades. Delightfully clear and simple without being simplistic, the book shows the remarkable convergence of the main streams of missiological thinking. Al Krass, Editor, The Other Side. Training Preachers Scott Gibson, 2019-03-20. A Field Guide for Teaching Homiletics. There is a difference between knowing how to preach and knowing how to communicate that knowledge to others. Drawing from the wells of pedagogy and theology, Training Preachers shows teachers of homiletics how to educate preachers to skillfully and effectively present God's word to their congregations. Training Preachers presents the classroom tested insights of several seasoned homiletics professors whose goal is to share their knowledge with preaching instructors ranging from novices to veterans. Expertly edited by Scott M. Gibson, this is a textbook on teaching preaching that is informed by Christian theology as well as cutting edge pedagogical practices. The book enables those who teach preaching to holistically prepare to teach this subject to groups, conference gatherings, and classes in Bible colleges and seminaries. Evangelism John Mark Terry, 1998-10-15. Ministers and other speakers will discover a wealth of illustrative and inspirational messages for sermons and every day living. A History of Evangelism in North America Thomas P. Johnston, 2021-07-27. Encounter North American evangelism from the Great Awakening to the present day. A History of Evangelism in North America guides readers on a tour through circuit riders and tent meetings to campus evangelism and online ministries. Academic research combines with gospel faithfulness and love for the lost in this historical survey. Encountering these prominent evangelism movements will inspire innovation and courage in the call to spread the Good News of Jesus Christ. Few Christians recognize the historical backgrounds of various evangelistic ministries, their theological traditions, or their guiding principles. A History of Evangelism in North America explores evangelism methodologies and legacies from the early 1700s to today. Experts deliver current scholarship on twenty-two evangelists and ministries including the following: John Wesley and itinerant preachers, the camp meeting movement, the American Bible Society and Bible distribution evangelism, the Navigators, and personal discipleship, Billy Graham and crusade evangelism.

Campus ministries The Jesus Movement 21st century evangelistic approaches A History of Evangelism in North America promises to have lasting value for those who study evangelism missions Christian history and the church in North America

A Concise History of the Christian World Mission Herbert J. Kane, 1978-08-01 This volume comprises an excellent introductory survey of Christian missions from A D 30 to the twentieth century Brazilian Evangelical Missions in the Arab World Edward L. Smither, 2012-07-20 From a mission field to a missions sender These words capture the story of the Brazilian evangelical church which has gone from receiving missionaries in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries to becoming a movement that presently sends out more global laborers than the churches of England or Canada do After narrating Brazil s missional shift in this volume Smither addresses one fascinating element of the story Brazilian evangelical efforts in the Arab world How have Brazilians adapted culturally among Arabs how have they approached ministry and how have they cultivated a theology of mission in the process Brazilian Evangelical Missions in the Arab World gives the reader insights from one emerging missions movement with an eye toward a more comprehensive view of the global church
