Mobilizing Capital Program Innovation :

Mobilizing Capital Peter Bearse,1982 Mobilizing Capital Peter Bearse,1982 Socioeconomic Impact Management John M Halstead,Robert A Chase,Steve H Murdock,F. Larry Leistritz,2019-07-11 The authors of this book present a comprehensive analysis of impact management for such large scale resource and industrial development projects as power plants mines and nuclear waste disposal facilities An overall framework for designing an impact management program is presented and specific recommendations for implementing management measures are provided This book is unique in that it provides a conceptual framework for choosing among alternative approaches in designing a management system as well as offering practical guidance for implementing such systems Housing and Planning References ,1983

The New Economic Role of American States R. Scott Fosler,1991-02-28 The growth of service and high tech industries in recent years has dramatically altered the geographical distribution of businesses throughout America Some states have had to attract new businesses to replace declining smokestack industries while others have experienced the trauma of rapid economic growth This collection of case studies of California Massachusetts Michigan Tennessee Arizona Minnesota and Indiana analyzes strategies and problems of economic evolution and the role of state institutions in the context of regional national and world economic change Privatization Bibliography ,1989 Debt Wish Alberta Sbragia,1996-05-15 Albert Sbragia considers American urban government as an investor whether for building infrastructure or supporting economic development Over time such investment has become disconnected from the normal political and administrative processes of local policymaking through the use of special public spending authorities like water and sewer commissions and port turnpike and public power authorities Sbragia explores how this entrepreneurial activity developed and how federal and state policies facilitated or limited it She also analyzes the implications of cities creating innovative special purpose quasi governments to circumvent and dilute state control over city finances diluting their own authority in the process Public Policy Across States and Communities Dennis R. Judd,1985 Energy Efficiency Ming Yang,Xin Yu,2015-02-21 This book discusses how energy efficiency benefits the global environment national energy security local pollution mitigation natural resource conservation and utility bill reduction In addition this book provides many hands on skills and knowledge to identify and develop energy efficiency projects The literature review shows that energy efficiency has become the first fuel in the world energy supply With empirical analyses this book indicates that without continued investment in energy efficiency neither China nor the U S could achieve their carbon emission reduction targets that were announced on November 13 2014 during the Beijing 2014 APEC meeting The authors argue that energy efficiency will become the first tool to mitigate climate change These include 1 identifying energy efficiency barriers 2 developing energy policies 3 investing in energy efficient technologies 4 undertaking project cost effectiveness analysis 5 de risking and financing energy efficiency projects 6 developing and managing energy service companies and 7 promoting urban transport efficiency Two case studies in energy efficiency improvement in electrical motors and industrial boilers are also presented This book is written for college and university students practitioners researchers consultants project developers and policy makers who want to dedicate their professional careers in global energy efficiency improvement climate change mitigation local clean air initiatives and energy bill reduction THE COLONY OF INNOVATIVE STARTUPS Bachir

BRAHIM,2020-03-21 This book is the result of fifteen 15 years of learning research travel journey and successful case studies analysis about innovation and entrepreneurship in four continents A journey that reflects the pursuit of views beliefs and opinions around the degree of strength or weakness success or failure of different entrepreneurship initiatives worldwide Following their paths in the creation of a positive and suitable entrepreneurship environment for the development and growth of innovative startups The main purpose of this book is to provide policymakers corporate leaders young entrepreneurs and academic researchers with practical tools and guidance that may enlighten their visions A guide that will contribute positively to building a suitable environment for the development of entrepreneurship initiatives will able them to implement a sustainable strategy for cultivating and growing innovative startups The reader of this book may notice a slightly different approach used in describing the entrepreneurship and innovations ecosystems as the colony of innovative startups The main idea behind that is the awareness about the current situation of different business climates and the necessity for such a contribution to solving different problems that hindering the growth of innovative startups and the sustainability of different entrepreneurship initiatives worldwide I hope to achieve a maximum of success and growth that will have a positive impact on economic development The Problem Entrepreneurship Initiatives Are Popping Up Dispersed and Disturbed There are thousands of entrepreneurship initiatives that pop up like mushrooms every day You can call them Excellent Polls Innovative Clusters Incubators Hubs Start up Labs Science Parks Tech parks etc Initiatives with the ultimate goal to create the Next X Silicon Valley An imitation effort to reproduce without a single understanding of the context the history the resources and the vision that led to the San Diego Silicon Valley home of multi billion tech giants Many concrete examples of these initiatives which are still subject to critiques and sometimes to controversy about their outcomes and real contributions to economic growth Cases from the Munich Smart City in Germany the Creative Cluster in Australia Kista and Ideon in Sweden Technology Triangle of Waterloo in Canada the Masdar of the UAE among many others All these initiatives have different structures and their ways of contributing to the country s GDP are also different However all of them have similar goals which is the creation of a successful business environment for startups An environment where several startups together with other stakeholders play a vital role in the development of their national economy Many of these initiatives are mainly consequences of the principle of Knowledge based economies Other are the results of a combination of interactions between different stakeholders inside the ecosystem following the Triple Helix Model Etzkowitz Leydesdorff 1995 Because they are geographically dispersed it is almost impossible to measure the value added by every initiative in a single country

The focus is always on limited targets at a national level These initiatives are also characterized by limited resources and actors to cover large scale targets and have a significant contribution to the country s economic development The Solution A colony That Consolidates and Reassembles Efforts This book is not introducing the secret formula to rebuild your own Silicon Valley It proposes a logical solution to enhance and build a suitable and positive climate for startups To consolidate multiple entrepreneurship initiatives in one project which will collect maximum resources and integrate a considerable number of players The mainstream inspiration of this book comes from the phenomenal of the self organized colony of ants such a biological ecosystem of social insects that run and sustain its growth perfectly A business model that inspires from the collective behavior of ants which generated the swarm intelligence A smart swarm reflected by tasks and labor organizations for every member within the colony This book will try to export the ants collective behavior Business Model into the world of entrepreneurship and innovation A model reflected by a new concept of building a positive environment for startups to grow and flourish which I call in this book A Colony of Innovative Startups It involves many stakeholders that interact together within a particular geographic space where they can cooperatively allocate considerable resources and contribute to achieving the colony objectives of growth and sustainability Proceedings of the IBA IEA Conference on Economics and Public Policy (Ecofluence 2024) Prashant Kulkarni,Subhash Sharma,2025-07-25 This book is an open access This open access volume presents select proceedings of International Conference on Economics and Public Policy and National Economics Research Championship Ecofluence 2024 Foreign Operations, Export Financing, and Related Programs Appropriations for 2006 United States.
