Rachel Rosen, Katherine Twamley, 2018-02-22 Feminism and the Politics of Childhood offers an innovative and critical exploration of perceived commonalities and conflicts between women and children and more broadly between various forms of feminism and the politics of childhood. This unique collection of 18 chapters brings into dialogue authors from a range of geographical contexts, social science disciplines, activist organisations and theoretical perspectives. The wide variety of subjects include refugee camps, care, labour, domestic violence and childcare and education. Chapter authors focus on local contexts as well as their global interconnections and draw on diverse theoretical traditions such as poststructuralism, psychoanalysis, posthumanism, postcolonialism, political economy and the ethics of care. Together the contributions offer new ways to conceptualise relations between women and children and to address injustices faced by both groups. Praise for Feminism and the Politics of Childhood Friends or Foes: This book is genuinely ground breaking. Val Gillies, University of Westminster. Feminism and the Politics of Childhood Friends or Foes asks an impossible question and then casts prismatic light on all corners of its impossibility. Chandra Talpade Mohanty, Syracuse University. This volume raises and addresses issues so pressing that it is surprising they are not already at the heart of scholarship. Ann Phoenix, UCL.

A Little Matter of Genocide Ward Churchill, 1997. Ward Churchill has achieved an unparalleled reputation as a scholar, activist and analyst of indigenous issues in North America. Here he explores the history of holocaust and denial in this hemisphere, beginning with the arrival of Columbus and continuing on into the present. He frames the matter by examining both revisionist denial of the Nazi perpetrated Holocaust and the opposing claim of its exclusive uniqueness, using the full scope of what happened in Europe as a backdrop against which to demonstrate that genocide is precisely what has been and still is carried out against the American Indians. Churchill lays bare the means by which many of these realities have remained hidden, how public understanding of this most monstrous of crimes has been subverted not only by its perpetrators and their beneficiaries but by the institutions and individuals who perceive advantages in the confusion. In particular, he outlines the reasons underlying the United States's 40 year refusal to ratify the Genocide Convention as well as the implications of the attempt to exempt itself from compliance when it finally offered its endorsement. In conclusion, Churchill proposes a more adequate and coherent definition of the crime as a basis for identifying, punishing and preventing genocidal practices wherever and whenever they occur. Ward Churchill enrolled Keetoowah, Cherokee. is Professor of American Indian Studies with the Department of Ethnic Studies at the University of Colorado Boulder. A member of the American Indian Movement since 1972, he has been a leader of the Colorado chapter for the past fifteen years. Among his previous books have been Fantasies of a Master Race, Struggle for the Land, Since Predator Came and From a Native Son.
