Mobilizing Place Placing Mobility The Politics Of Representation In A Globalized World:

Mobilizing Place, Placing Mobility Ginette Verstraete, Tim Cresswell, 2002 What role does place have in a world marked by increased mobility on a global scale What strategies are there for representing place in the age of globalization What is the relationship between place and the varied mobilities of migrancy tourism travel and nomadism These are some of the questions that run through the ten essays in this collection The combined effect of these essays is to participate in the contemporary project of subjecting the links between place mobility identity representation and practice to critical interdisciplinary scrutiny Such notions are not the property of particular disciplines In the era of globalization transnationalism and readily acknowledged cultural hybridity these links are more important than ever They are important because of the taken for grantedness of the universal impact of globalization the receding importance of place and the centrality of mobile identities This taken for grantedness masks the ways place continues to be important and ways in which mobility is differentiated by race gender ethnicity nationality and many other social markers This book is a concerted attempt to stop taking for granted these themes of the age Material discussed in the essays include the creation of cultural routes in Europe the video s of Fiona Tan artistic and literary representations of the North African desert the production of indigenous videos in Mexico mobile forms of ethnography the film Existenz Jamaica Kincaid s writing on gardens the video representation of sex tourism and ways of imagining the global Authors include Tim Cresswell Ginette Verstraete Ernst van Alphen Ursula Biemann Laurel C Smith Nick Couldry Isabel Hoving Renee van de Vall Inge E Boer and Kevin Hetherington

Travel and Imagination Garth Lean, Russell Staiff, Emma Waterton, 2016-02-24 The imagination has long been associated with travel and tourism from the seventeenth century when the showman and his peepshow box would take the village crowd to places cities and lands through the power of stories to today when we rely on a different range of boxes to whisk us away on our imaginative travels the television the cinema and the computer Even simply the notion of travel it would seem gives us license to daydream The imagination thus becomes a key concept that blurs the boundaries between our everyday lives and the idea of travel Yet despite what appears to be a close and comfortable link there is an absence of scholarly material looking at travel and the imagination Bringing together geographers sociologists cultural researchers philosophers anthropologists visual researchers archaeologists heritage researchers literary scholars and creative writers this edited collection explores the socio cultural phenomenon of imagination and travel The volume reflects upon imagination in the context of many forms of physical and non physical travel inviting scholars to explore this fascinating yet complex area of inquiry in all of its wonderful colour slipperiness mystery and intrigue The book intends to provide a catalyst for thinking discussion research and writing with the vision of generating a cannon of scholarship on travel and the imagination that is currently absent from the literature

Muslim Mobilities ,2024-12-30 A translocal ethnography about Tajik migrants engagement in projects of reform Islamic life in Dubai the book maps Gulf migration onto larger geographies of Muslim mobility piety and belonging across places in Eurasia the Gulf and wider Middle East Spatializing the intersection of migration work and Muslim piety the book examines how formations of ethical subjectivity are closely tied to the multiple places that shape migrants travel itineraries and related experiences of dwelling there and crossing them Situating these spatial biographies in broader transregional fields of Muslim mobility connectedness and placemaking the book explores why in the early 2000s young Tajik Muslims pursued spiritual social and moral progress in the booming religious economy of Dubai s fur coat business sector The book s spatial approach works threefold With a focus on abroad it interrogates the interplay of spatial perceptions of the good elsewhere with migrants placemaking there A second focus is on how multiplicity and flexibility of migrant situatedness spatially temporally socially in Persianate Russophone and Arab culturescapes shape mobile pious subjectivities and cosmopolitan belongings The book also develops a situated Tajik perspective on Gulf migration that grounds in circulating spatial imaginaries Muslim knowledge repertoires as well as in individual travel modes paths and migrant experiences resulting from precarious livelihoods and discriminating migrant regimes Linking anthropology with new area studies approaches this book seeks to enhance multidisciplinary scholarship about the complex relation between religion migration and mobile subjectivity in both Central Asian and Gulf studies and in the anthropology of Islam The Cultural Moment in Tourism Laurajane Smith,Emma Waterton,Steve Watson,2012 This volume provides a theoretical and empirical account of what it means to be a cultural tourist and a creative and affective user of heritage itself by exploring the interactions of people with places spaces and different ways of life Mobile Identities Kamal Sbiri,Jopi Nyman,Rachida Yassine,2020-11-18 Mobility has become one of the most exciting factors shaping our transnational and transcultural world today However the variety of approaches and stimulating debates it has engendered in geopolitics and sociology make it challenging for literary and cultural critics to establish solid approaches and own vocabularies Through a variety of case studies written by international contributors this volume addresses emerging topics by using the tools of border studies postcolonial discourse and globalization theory The multiple perspectives provided here emphasize the interaction between migrants and hosts as material discursive and historical. The chapters in this volume view identities as mobile and in constant flux, constructed and reconstructed repeatedly in historical and cultural encounters with several others. As a result of this dynamic, established stereotypes and images are challenged and revised in the analyses here. The book concludes that cultural identities are increasingly visible as results of large scale global mobility. In so doing, it challenges views that address ethnicity as an unambiguous category and reveals that the making of such identities is contradictory and even conflicting.

Companion to Public Space Vikas Mehta, Danilo Palazzo, 2020-05-13. The Companion to Public Space draws together an outstanding multidisciplinary collection of specially commissioned chapters that offer the state of the art in the intellectual discourse, scholarship, research and principles of understanding in the construction of public space. Thematically, the volume crosses disciplinary boundaries and traverses territories to address the philosophical, political, legal, planning, design and management issues in the social construction of public space. The Companion uniquely assembles important voices from diverse fields of philosophy, political science, geography, anthropology, sociology, urban design and planning, architecture, art and many more under one cover. It addresses the complete ecology of the topic to expose the interrelated issues, challenges and opportunities of public space in the twenty first century. The book is primarily intended for scholars and graduate students for whom it will provide an invaluable and up to date guide to current thinking across the range of disciplines that converge in the study of public space. The Companion will also be of use to practitioners and public officials who deal with the planning, design and management of public spaces.

The Geography of Nostalgia Alastair Bonnett, 2015-08-11. We are familiar with the importance of progress and change. But what about loss? Across the world, from Beijing to Birmingham, people are talking about loss, about the loss that occurs when populations try to make new lives in new lands, as well as the loss of traditions, languages and landscapes. The Geography of Nostalgia is the first study of loss as a global and local phenomenon, something that occurs on many different scales and which connects many different people. The Geography of Nostalgia explores nostalgia as a child of modernity, but also as a force that exceeds and challenges modernity. The book begins at a global level, addressing the place of nostalgia within both global capitalism and anti capitalism. In Chapter Two, it turns to the contested role of nostalgia in debates about environmentalism and social constructionism. Chapter Three addresses ideas of Asia and India as nostalgic forms. The book then turns to more particular and local landscapes; the last three chapters explore the yearnings of migrants for distant homelands and the old cities and ancient forests that are threatened by modernity but which modern people see as sites of authenticity and escape. The Geography of Nostalgia is a reader friendly text that will appeal to a variety of markets. In the university sector, it is a student friendly interdisciplinary text that will be welcomed across a broad range of courses including cultural geography, post colonial studies, landscape and planning, sociology and history.

Mobilities, Networks, Geographies Jonas Larsen, John Urry, 2016-05-06 There have been striking increases in both long distance travel and in communications through mobile phones text messaging emailing and videoconferencing Such developments in communication along with a similar increase in physical travel and movement of goods around the globe reconfigure social networks by disconnecting and reconnecting people in new ways This original book puts forward one of the first social science studies of the geographies of social networks and related mobilities of travel communications and face to face meetings The book examines five interdependent mobilities that form and reform these geographies of networks and travel in the contemporary world These are physical travel of people for work leisure pleasure migration and escape physical movement of objects delivered to producers consumers and retailers imaginative travel elsewhere through images and memories seen on texts TV computer screens and film virtual travel on the internet and communicative travel through letters cards telegrams telephones faxes text messages and videoconferences In the book the authors examine the interconnections between these different mobilities They research how travel and social meetings require systems of coordination using virtual and communicative travel in between physical travel and meetings They argue that while it might be imagined that there would be less need of physical meetings with improved technology on the contrary scheduled visits and meetings have become highly significant The research shows that they are necessary to social life in the contemporary world both within business and especially within families and friendships which are increasingly conducted at a distance

Human Trafficking Marie Segrave, 2016-12-05 Human trafficking captured the attention of the global community well over a decade ago inspiring multifarious international national regional and local responses While formally recognized as one of the major threats associated with transnational organized crime human trafficking remains an issue about which much has been written and yet little is known or supported by empirical evidence The essays selected for this volume reflect four key areas of debate the transnational organized crime framework the data and research landscape the implementation of anti trafficking responses and the articulation of alternative responses to human trafficking These essays are written by well known and more recent contributors to this field of research The collection draws attention to contemporary arguments as well as recent empirical research and points to the importance of contextualizing human trafficking within both the global and local setting This volume reflects where human trafficking data research and debate is currently located and where it is heading and as such is of interest to academics students policymakers and practitioners

Transnational Portuguese Studies Hilary Owen, Claire Williams, 2020-06-17 Transnational Portuguese Studies offers a radical rethinking of the role played by the concepts of nationhood and the nation in the epistemologies that underpin Portuguese Studies as an academic discipline Portuguese Studies offers a particularly rich and enlightening challenge to methodological nationalism in Modern Languages not least because the teaching of Portuguese has always extended beyond the study of the single western European country from which the language takes its name However this has rarely been analysed with explicit or critical reference to the transnational turn in Arts and Humanities This volume of essays from leading scholars in Portugal Brazil the USA and the UK explores how the histories cultures and ideas constituted in and through Portuguese language resist borders and produce encounters from the manoeuvres of 15th century globalization and cartography to present day mega events such as the Rio Olympics The result is a timely counter narrative to the workings of linguistic and cultural nationalism demonstrating how texts paintings and photobooks musical forms political ideas cinematic representations gender identities digital communications and lexical forms may travel translate and embody transcultural contact in ways which only become readable through the optics of transnationalism Contributors Ana Margarida Dias Martins Anna M Klobucka Christopher Larkosh Claire Williams Cl udia Pazos Alonso Edward King Ellen W Sapega Fernando Arenas Hilary Owen Jos Lingna Nafaf Kimberly DaCosta Holton Maria Lu sa Coelho Paulo de Medeiros Sara Ramos Pinto Sheila Moura Hue Simon Park Susana Afonso Tatiana Heise Toby Green Tori Holmes Vivien Kogut Lessa de S and Zolt n Biedermann

Engineering Reality Cornelia Helmcke, 2023-09-22 Engineering Reality offers unprecedented insights into the power of environmental impact assessments in engineering a reality favourable to any investment focusing on the highly contested environmental study of a large hydroelectric dam project in southern Colombia El Quimbo The inclusion of environmental impact assessments to project proposals of environmental influence has been an undeniably important step to environmental governance in many countries around the world Regarding the science behind these studies as objective and their results as the closest in representing reality however is misleading Many activists and scholars made it their mission to uncover the limitations and work towards filling the gaps Participation processes are considered key to any successful evaluation but local knowledges and alternative perspectives are still often disqualified through more widely accepted scientific methods Engineering Reality systematically walks through and accounts for the shortcomings and injustices associated with environmental monitoring It compares the reality as presented in the dam s environmental impact study with first hand accounts from the local and affected populations and observations gathered through two periods of fieldwork in 2012 before and 2016-17 after the dam started operating It explores how the knowledge of the study was used politically and to what end Bringing the findings in conversation with the wider environmental impact assessment literature the book proposes a new framework to assess energy projects Energy Data Justice that regards the environmental impact assessment a strictly political tool aimed at reaching the just energy transition in Colombia and worldwide

discusses the relationship between law and memory and explores the ways in which memory can be thought of as contributing to legal socialization and legal meaning making Against a backdrop of critical legal pluralism which examines the distributedness of law s this book introduces the notion of mnemonic legality It emphasises memory as a resource of law rather than an object of law on the basis of how it substantiates senses of belonging and comes to frame inclusions and exclusions from a national community on the basis of linear trajectory and growth narratives of nationhood Overall it explores the sensorial and affective foundations of law implicating memory and perceptions of belonging within this process of creating legality and legitimacy By identifying how memory comes to shape and inform notions of law it contributes to legal consciousness research and to important questions informing much socio legal research

Mimi Sheller,2012-05-07 This work starts with a substantial historical account of the different ways that freedom race and gender were intertwined in Jamaica and Haiti after the end of slavery Newly free men and women were rebound into a racialized class order with acceptable and unacceptable forms of masculinity and femininity Sheller traces these histories of racialized and sexualized forms of freedom to the present

Water Worlds: Human Geographies of the Ocean Kimberley

Peters,2016-02-11 Our world is a water world Seventy percent of our planet consists of ocean However geography has traditionally overlooked this vital component of the earth s composition The word geography directly translates as earth writing and in line with this definition the discipline has preoccupied itself with the study of terrestrial spaces of society and nature This book challenges human geography s preoccupation with the terrestrial investigating the terra incognita of the seas and oceans Linking to new theoretical debates shaping the geographic discipline such as affect assemblage emotion hybridity and the more than human this volume unlocks new knowledge concerning the human geographies of ocean space The book casts adrift stable bounded and fixed conceptions of space and advances geographical understanding based on the world as becoming changing mobile and processional This ontology supports the notion that the oceans are not simply fluid in a literal way but also in a conceptual sense suggesting that the seas have their own fluid natures their own capacities and agencies which are co fabricated with social and cultural life This book features twelve chapters authored by key academics contributing to this growing field of research The book is divided into three sections including an Introduction by the editors and a foreword by Prof Philip E Steinberg the leading scholar in the field of maritime geographies The first section of the book considers the ways in which different watery spaces from the Atlantic Ocean to the Mediterranean Sea have been conceptualized theorized and known through metaphors voyages of discovery and scientific endeavour The second section examines how oceans are experienced through various activities including driving on water kayaking in water and diving under water The final section explores the relations between human life and the nature of the sea as a material mobile and more than human spa

Sociality

Revisited? The Use of the Internet and Mobile Phones in Urban Cameroon Bettina Anja Frei, 2013 This book draws on the perspectives of non migrants and urban youth in Bamenda in the Northwest region of Cameroon as well as on the views of Cameroonian migrants in Switzerland to explore the meaning and role of New Media in the negotiation of sociality in transnational migration New Media facilitated connectedness serve as a privileged lens through which Cameroonians home and away scrutinise and mediate sociality In this rich ethnography Bettina Frei describes how the internet and mobile phones are adopted by migrants and their non migrant counterparts in order to maintain transnational relationships and how the specific medialities of these communication technologies in turn impact on transnational sociality Contrary to popular presumptions that New Media are experienced as mainly connecting and enabling this study reveals that in a transnational context in particular New Media serve to mediate tensions in transnational social ties The expectations of being connected go hand in hand with an awareness of social and geographical distance and separation
