its author catches the relish humor and staginess of the age but also the dilemmas faced by Britain's citizens ones we remain familiar with today Late Victorian Britain 1875-1901 J.F.C. Harrison,2013-06-17 Drawing heavily on the recollections and literature of the people themselves Harrison places late Victorian Britain firmly in its social and political context Modern England 1901-1970 Alfred Havighurst,1976-05-13 This is a comprehensive bibliography of all printed books articles and standard texts on England Ireland Scotland the Commonwealth and the colonies up to 1970 This handbook will serve as a useful guide to scholars teachers at all levels advanced students and the general reader interested in examining the period in some depth Race and Class in the Colonial Bahamas, 1880-1960 Gail Saunders,2017-10-16 Saunders resoundingly affirms the relevance of island history Scholars will appreciate the detail and insights Choice Deftly unravels the complex historical interrelationships of race color class economics and environment in the Colonial Bahamas An invaluable study for scholars who conduct comparative research on the British Caribbean Rosalyn Howard author of Black Seminoles in the Bahamas Saunders is to be commended for a scholarly study that prominently features the non white majority in the Bahamas a group which usually has been overlooked Whittington B Johnson author of Post Emancipation Race Relations in The Bahamas In this one of a kind study of race and class in the Bahamas Gail Saunders shows how racial tensions were not necessarily parallel to those across other British West Indian colonies but instead mirrored the inflexible color line of the United States Proximity to the U S and geographic isolation from other British colonies created a uniquely Bahamian interaction among racial groups Focusing on the post emancipation period from the 1880s to the 1960s Saunders considers the entrenched though extra legal segregation prevalent in most spheres of life that lasted well into the 1950s Saunders traces early black nationalist and pan Africanism movements as well as the influence of Garveyism and Prohibition during World War I She examines the economic depression of the 1930s and the subsequent boom in the tourism industry which boosted the economy but worsened racial tensions proponents of integration predicted disaster if white tourists ceased traveling to the islands Despite some upward mobility of mixed race and black Bahamians the economy continued to be dominated by the white elite and trade unions and labor based parties came late to the Bahamas Secondary education although limited to those who could afford it was the route to a better life for nonwhite Bahamians and led to mixed race and black persons studying in professional fields which ultimately brought about a rising political consciousness Training her lens on the nature of relationships among the various racial and social groups in the Bahamas Saunders tells the story of how discrimination persisted until at last squarely challenged by the majority of Bahamians Orwell Ian Slater,2003-09-26 In Moulmein in Lower Burma I was hated by large numbers of people So begins one of Orwell's most famous essays In Orwell The Road to Airstrip One Ian Slater explains why Orwell was hated in Moulmein and takes us on a fascinating intellectual journey that traces the development of Orwell's political and social criticism Using a uniquely thematic approach Slater also examines Orwell's self criticism and finally the hidden and corrosive dangers of state and self imposed censorship in a security obsessed world Slater's tour de force critically acclaimed by those on both the left and the right moves from Orwell's schooldays in England and his time as a policeman in Burma through his years as a struggling poet dishwasher tramp in Paris and tutor schoolmaster and bookshop assistant in London to his critical experiences during the Spanish Civil War Slater takes us beyond the events of Orwell's life to the bitter satire of the Russian Revolution in Animal Farm and the horrifying terror of Room 101 in 1984 Orwell's final novel and shows that 1984 is as much a warning about the state of mind we call totalitarianism as it is a prophecy of an actual political state As the war on terrorism continues and governments demand ever increasing power over the individual in order to combat terrorism Orwell The Road to Airstrip One reissued during Orwell's centenary warns us that he who fights with monsters should be careful lest he thereby become a monster dating from the Roman period Mr Blair skillfully describes the transition from Roman to Saxon England and shows why Rome's greatest legacy to her former colony Christianity flowered within Anglo Saxon culture The source material on Saxon England is mainly documentary as these new inhabitants built in wood and little archaeological evidence has survived However Bede's Ecclesiastical History of the English Nation and other great Christian writings the Anglo Saxon Chronicle Beowulf the stories of Caedmon and other poems and epics in the Germanic minstrelsy tradition have revealed much about English economic social and cultural life up to the accession of Alfred the Great

Men In The Public Eye Jeff Hearn, 2006-05-11

Men in the Public Eye reveals why men's domination in and of the public sphere is a vital feature of gender relations in patriarchy It also shows how public domains dominate private domains contributing to the intensification of public patriarchies Jeff Hearn explores these important issues by focusing on the period 1870-1920 when there was massive growth and transformation in the power of the public domains He demonstrates that these historical debates and dilemmas are still relevant today as men search for new postmodern forms of masculinities
