Suckling at My Mother's Breasts Ellen Davina Haskell, 2012-11-06 One of Kabbalah's most distinctive images of the feminine divine is that of a motherly breastfeeding God Suckling at My Mother's Breasts traces this idea from its origins in ancient rabbinic literature through its flourishing in the medieval classic Sefer ha Zohar The Book of Splendor Taking the position that kabbalistic images provide specific detailed models for understanding the relationship between God and human beings Ellen Davina Haskell connects divine nursing theology to Jewish ideals regarding motherhood breastfeeding and family life from medieval France and Spain where Kabbalah originated Haskell's approach allows for a new evaluation of Kabbalah's feminine divine one centered on culture and context rather than gender philosophy or psychoanalysis As this work demonstrates the image of the nursing divine is intended to cultivate a direct emotional response to God rooted in nurture love and reliance rather than knowledge sexuality or authority The Mother's Assistant and Young Lady's Friend, 1843 Bulletin of the Madras Government Museum, 1929 Understanding Davanloo's Intensive Short-Term Dynamic Psychotherapy Catherine Hickey, 2018-05-08 This book allows the reader to witness what transpires in the Montreal closed circuit training programme It incorporates the recent research findings of Dr Davanloo with his previously published metapsychological and technical discoveries Encyclopedia of Disability Gary L Albrecht, 2006 Presents current knowledge of and experience with disability across a wide variety of places conditions and cultures to both the general reader and the specialist Anti-slavery Songs ,1849 The Blind Truth LoraKay,2016-02-10 Amanda is a young woman whose parents are separated by the death of her mother Her and her parents lived in a mining camp from the time Amanda was five years old until she was ten Her father futilely searched for gold until her mother became ill and died Her dad was a drunk and he couldn't live with the shame for the way he treated Amanda and her mother so he sends Amanda away to live with her aunt and uncle even though Amanda begs him not to After Amanda turns eighteen and finishes her co Before Speech Margaret Bullowa,1979-09-27 Long before they can make any sounds approaching language infants can share in communication though what this means is the subject of much scrutiny This 1979 volume deliberately draws on people whose different backgrounds have brought them to explore questions that have a bearing on communication in this earliest phase of human infancy This is then as Dr Bullowa says in her introduction primarily a book about how scientists go about finding out how infants and adults communicate with one another It is nowhere dogmatic contributors have all been encouraged to say why they came to do the research reported how they set about it and what they discovered Dr Bullowa herself provides a useful introduction which makes its own substantial contribution while surveying the broad context of the particular research discussing some of the themes that recur in the book and relating them to the wider literature The Posen Library of Jewish Culture and Civilization, Volume 8 Todd M. Endelman,Zvi Gitelman,Deborah Dash Moore,2020-04-07 The eighth volume in a landmark series this anthology of Jewish culture and civilization encompasses the period between the world wars An anthology of Jewish culture between the world wars the editors selections convey the variety breadth and depth of Jewish creativity in those tempestuous decades Despite or perhaps because of external threats Jews fought vigorously over religion politics migration and their own relation to the state and to one another The texts translated from many languages span a wide range of politics culture literature and art This collection examines what was simultaneously a tense and innovative period in modern Jewish history A Blind Man's Offering Benjamin B. Bowen,1878 Proceedings Royal Society of Edinburgh,1895 My Father's Wisdom, My Mother's Love Bill Vivio,2008-06 I start the story on Christmas in the year 2004 and finished it in October 2005 The reason it took me this long even when I have all the story in my mind is my time was very short to sit at the computer and type It is about an innocent man looking for a job and he ends up in a trap They hired him to kill but the plan was killing the President so he did what he was hired for but inside the jail was a shocking surprise I hope you like the story The illustrated magazine , The Ladies' Companion ,1858 Blind Narrations and Artistic Subjectivities Aravinda Bhat,2023-07-11 Blind Narrations and Artistic Subjectivities Corporeal Refractions makes an important contribution to the field of blindness studies by highlighting the centrality of blindness in literary compositions It presents a critical interpretation of selected prose writings by three blind authors Argentine poet short story writer and essayist Jorge Luis Borges Australian religious educator and diarist John M Hull and the American memoirist and poet

Stephen Kuusisto The volume discusses themes like theorising the corporeality of writing aesthetic turn to the experience of blindness altered sensation and self understanding lived experience of growing blind self knowledge through interaction with the world artistic subjectivity narrative choices and the implied author This book will be useful for scholars and researchers of blindness studies disability studies arts and aesthetics literature cultural studies and philosophy The Ladies' Companion, and Monthly Magazine Webb Loudon,1858 Life Together, A Life Apart Bain Attwood,2015-01-01 There are not too many histories of Aboriginal reserves that have something good to say of them But the Burrage children Winifred Alan and Elsie recall the world of their childhood as a happy one They recount how their Anglo Australian parents toiled on reserves with genuine caring and an unsentimental sense of duty A Life Together a Life Apart is a collaborative autobiography and an oral narrative as well as a history The vivid recollections of Winifred Burrage Alan Burrage and Elsie Stokie form its centrepiece In an introductory essay Bain Attwood sketches the background to the reserves and discusses the different histories we have of relations between Europeans and Aborigines in Australia In the final section he scrutinises the form of oral history and contemplates the nature of historical knowledge The result is a passionate representation of the virtues of History
