Riga,Claude A. Prance,2019-06-04 This book was originally published in 1978 The London Magazine is briefly told in the accomplishments and failures of its four editors and during the fourteen months of his editorship 1820 21 John Scott succeeded in establishing the London as one of the finest literary periodicals of the nineteenth century John Taylor the second editor maintained the high quality of the magazine by securing many excellent writers But by the end of 1825 the first year of Henry Southern s editorship the magazine had lost most of its distinguished writers When Charles knight began editing the London in 1828 its great period was already a memory This book presents a brief history of the magazine alongside the index Anonymity John Mullan,2021-05-11 Some of the greatest works in English literature were first published without their authors names Why did so many authors want to be anonymous and what was it like to read their books without knowing for certain who had written them In Anonymity John Mullan gives a fascinating and original history of hidden identity in English literature From the sixteenth century to today he explores how the disguises of writers were first used and eventually penetrated how anonymity teased readers and bamboozled critics and how when book reviews were also anonymous reviewers played tricks of their own in return Today we have forgotten that the first readers of Gulliver s Travels and Sense and Sensibility had to guess who their authors might be and that writers like Sir Walter Scott and Charlotte Bront went to elaborate lengths to keep secret their authorship of the best selling books of their times But in fact anonymity is everywhere in English literature Spenser Donne Marvell Defoe Swift Fanny Burney Austen Byron Thackeray Lewis Carroll Tennyson George Eliot Sylvia Plath and Doris Lessing all hid their names With great lucidity and wit Anonymity tells the stories of these and many other writers providing a fast paced entertaining and informative tour through the history of English literature
