William Arthur DARBY, 1864      My Friendship with Saint Elizabeth Ann Seton Mary Hilaire Tavenner, Mary Hilaire Tavenner Ph.D, 2008-09-18 My Friendship with St Elizabeth Ann Seton is a book about a unique relationship between someone born in 1774 and the author born in 1948. It is the adventures of Mary Hilaire Sally Lynne Tavenner and the first native born American saint throughout the past forty years. In this book you will learn the life of Mother Seton, read a first hand account of her canonization as recorded by one of the 14,000 Americans present in Rome for the event. The reader will learn about the process and documented miracles which helped to bring about her canonization. You will also read behind the scene memoirs of a 3 million docudrama produced by Hollywood on the life of St Elizabeth Ann Seton. The book relays many personal experiences, anecdotes, and information unique to this particular collection of stories. If you have ever had a devotion to a particular saint, you will enjoy reading the adventures of Hilaire Sally Tavenner and Elizabeth Bayley Seton.      Nuns

Without Cloister Marguerite Vacher, 2010-04-12 Nuns Without Cloister explores one of the first and most innovative among the non-cloistered women's congregations established after the Council of Trent. Under the aegis of a Jesuit missionary, the first Sisters of St Joseph envisioned a direct role for religious women in the secular society of mid-seventeenth century France and quietly broke the ecclesiastical and cultural barriers that opposed it. This book opens perspectives on the sisters' success through a politics of discretion and the introduction of creative variety in their lives in country parishes or in the urban orphanages, hospitals, and reformatories for fallen women of the ancien régime. Vacher's methodology, comparing the congregation's theoretical prescriptive documents with evidence about the actual life of these communities in southern France, leads to the question of whether and to what degree succeeding generations grasped the original inspiration. Sisters of St Joseph preceding the French Revolution established a paradigm for the active apostolic women's congregations of the nineteenth and twentieth centuries that supplied the workforce behind Catholic schools, colleges, hospitals, and orphanages in the United States, Canada, and elsewhere. In researching them, Nuns Without Cloister addresses a little understood but central dimension in the early modern foundations of contemporary Catholicism.      A New Latin-English School Lexicon on the School-lexicon George Richard Crooks, Alexander Jacob Schem, 1861      Refugee Nuns, the French Revolution, and British Literature and Culture Tonya J. Moutray, 2016-03-22 In eighteenth century literature, negative representations of Catholic nuns and convents were pervasive. Yet during the politico-religious crises initiated by the French Revolution, a striking literary shift took place as British writers championed the cause of nuns, lauded their socially relevant work, and addressed the attraction of the convent for British women. Interactions with Catholic religious, including priests and nuns, Tonya J.

Moutray argues motivated writers including Hester Thrale Piozzi Helen Maria Williams and Charlotte Smith to reevaluate the historical and contemporary utility of religious refugees Beyond an analysis of literary texts Moutray s study also examines nuns personal and collective narratives as well as news coverage of their arrival to England enabling a nuanced investigation of a range of issues including nuns displacement and imprisonment in France their rhetorical and practical strategies to resist authorities representations of refugee migration to and resettlement in England relationships with benefactors and locals and the legal status of English nuns and convents in England including their work in recruitment and education Moutray shows how writers and the media negotiated the multivalent figure of the nun during the 1790s shaping British perceptions of nuns and convents during a time critical to their survival The Rabbi and the Nun Mordecai Schreiber,1991 Rabbi Kaye and Sister Eve are passionately committed to their religious vocations yet in spite of their differing beliefs become attracted to each other only to find out they have to choose between their faith and their feelings for each other

Nuns Across the Orange: A History of the Pioneering Anglican Community of St Michael and All Angels, Bloemfontein Michael Sparrow,2021-04-21 When Sister Emma and the five women who accompanied her from England crossed the Orange River early in 1874 they exchanged the comfortable mainstream of Anglican Church life for the rigours of pioneering new works in an undeveloped country Living conditions were primitive travel was hard and money was always in short supply The newly formed Community of St Michael and All Angels opened the first girls schools north of the Orange and the first hospital in the Free State At Kimberley Sister Henrietta achieved a world first through her successful campaign for the State Registration of nurses Four Sisters were besieged in Kimberley during the Anglo Boer War and in Bloemfontein their Mother House became a military hospital By faith and determination the Community recovered St Michael s School was raised to new standards of excellence while the Sisters expanded their mission to include Lesotho and the eastern Free State Decades of work with Bloemfontein s sick and deprived led to Sister Enid becoming known as Ma Mohau Mother of Mercy and to national acclaim in the 1970s as South Africa s Mother Teresa This book studies the development of the Community s religious life and charts the progress of their work among all races from their foundation until the death of the last Sister in 2016 Across the Orange their relative isolation from the strong centres of Anglicanism eventually contributed to their demise but not before they had established an enduring legacy The work they began in Lesotho is continued by the Community of the Holy Name while St Michael s School in Bloemfontein is recognised as one of the finest girls schools in South Africa
