Rose, 1999 This new book traces the transformation of day care from a charity for poor single mothers in the early twentieth century to a socially accepted need of ordinary families by the 1950s Using Philadelphia as a case study Elizabeth Rose explores the history of day care from the perspective of the families who used it as well as the philanthropists and social workers who administered it This study helps us understand the roots of our current dilemmas about day care in the context of debates on welfare women s work and family values Improving Pastures and Grasslands for the Northeastern States at the U.S. Regional Pasture Research Laboratory ,1946 Instructions on Processing for Community Frozen-food Locker Plants ,1945 This publication covers the topic of building with logs and assumes that the reader is familiar with the ordinary frame building methods used where wood is the principal construction material Miscellaneous Publication ,1946 General Technical Report INT. ,1981 The Effects of Fire and Other Disturbances on Small Mammals and Their Predators Catherine H. Clarke, 2017-07-05 First published in 1975 this book compiles a number of studies concerning institutional care and children which address the question of why institutions that serve apparently similar functions differ so much The book uses comparative methods such as measurement of different dimensions of institutional care and analysis of interrelationships among specific structural and functional features which characterise particular institutions As a result the book draws broad conclusions about the importance of factors that have dynamic influence on the manner in which institutions function and the reasons why they differ The editors reject the steampress model which postulates that institutions are more or less alike They discuss ideological and organisational variation differences in staffing and the manner in which children respond to them and consider these issues as factors that influence the way in which an institution functions as a whole Subsequent chapters describe comparative studies carried out in institutions for the mentally handicapped approved schools residential nurseries probation hostels other correctional institutions and units for autistic children The book enables the reader to appreciate achievements and shortcomings of contemporary research and thinking in this field Early Childhood Care & Education Edward Melhuish, Konstantinos Petrogiannis, 2006-09-27 This edited volume examines the ways in which different countries across the world are tackling
