Nurturing Souls:

Nurturing the Souls of Our Children Robert Mitchell, 2005 The Sin of Obedience is one of the few works of fiction or non fiction that looks profoundly and with deep personal reflection into the training of a Catholic priest The novel rich and accurate in detail is the story of a young prodigy torn with between the rigid religious traditions and convictions of his mother and the more humanity oriented respect for freedom of his father Building on his own experiences including being the subject of sexual abuse by a seminary teacher the author unfolds a picture of religious life in which the cornerstones of celibacy and a vow of obedience have forced seminarians and priests to make difficult and often impossible decisions in their own personal lives This well crafted story enables the reader to go along with a young boy seminarian and priest on his idealistic pursuit and mission and the consequences he has to face as a result Nurturing the Souls of Our Children

Nurturing the Soul of the Youth Worker Tim Smith,1999

Nation and Nurture in Seventeenth-Century English Literature Rachel Trubowitz,2012-05-31

Nation and Nurture in Seventeenth Century English Literature connects changing seventeenth century English views of maternal nurture to the rise of the modern nation especially between 1603 and 1675 Maternal nurture gains new prominence in the early modern cultural imagination at the precise moment when England undergoes a major paradigm shift from the traditional dynastic body politic organized by organic bonds to the post dynastic modern nation comprised of symbolic and affective relations The book also demonstrates that shifting early modern perspectives on Judeo Christian relations deeply inform the period s interlocking reassessments of maternal nurture and the nation especially in the case of Milton The book s five chapters analyze a wide range of reformed and traditional texts including A pitiless Mother William Gouge s Of Domesticall Duties Shakespeare s Macbeth Charles I s Eikon Basilike and Milton s Paradise Lost and Samson Agonistes Equal attention is paid to such early modern visual images as The power of women a late sixteenth century Dutch engraving William Marshall s engraved frontispiece to Richard Braithwaite s The English Gentleman and Gentlewoman 1641 and Peter Paul Rubens s painting of Pero and Cimon or Roman Charity 1630 The book argues that competing early modern figurations of the nurturing mother mediate in politically implicated ways between customary biblical models of English kingship and innovative Hebraic Puritan paradigms of Englishness
