Willa Cather and the American Southwest John N. Swift, Joseph R. Urgo, 2002-01-01 The American Southwest was arguably as formative a landscape for Willa Cather s aesthetic vision as was her beloved Nebraska Both landscapes elicited in her a sense of raw incompleteness They seemed not so much finished places as things unassembled more like countries still waiting to be made into a landscape Cather s fascination with the Southwest led to its presence as a significant setting in three of her most ambitious novels The Song of the Lark The Professor s House and Death Comes for the Archbishop This volume focuses a sharp eye on how the landscape of the American Southwest served Cather creatively and the ways it shaped her research and productivity No single scholarly methodology prevails in the essays gathered here giving the volume rare depth and complexity
