Chicana/o and Latina/o Fiction Ylce Irizarry, 2016-02-15 In this new study Ylce Irizarry moves beyond literature that prioritizes assimilation to examine how contemporary fiction depicts being Cuban Dominican Mexican or Puerto Rican within Chicana o and Latina o America Irizarry establishes four dominant categories of narrative loss reclamation fracture and new memory that address immigration gender and sexuality cultural nationalisms and neocolonialism As she shows narrative concerns have moved away from the weathered notions of arrival and assimilation Contemporary Chicana o and Latina o literatures instead tell stories that have little if anything to do with integration into the Anglo American world The result is the creation of new memory This reformulation of cultural membership unmasks the neocolonial story and charts the conscious engagement of cultural memory It outlines the ways contemporary Chicana o and Latina o communities create belonging and memory of their ethnic origins An engaging contribution to an important literary tradition Chicana o and Latina o Fiction privileges the stories Chicanas os and Latinas os remember about themselves rather than the stories of those subjugating them NACCS Book Award National Association for Chicana and Chicano Studies 2018 MLA Prize in United States Latina and Latino and Chicana and Chicano Literary and Cultural Studies Modern Language Association 2017
