Sarai Reader 03 Shaping Technologies:

Utopia in the Factory Rhiannon Firth, John Preston, 2025-07-31 This book is open access The idea that automation Artificial Intelligence AI and Robotics might lead to a utopian future for humanity is a powerful one both in mainstream and radical discourse The paradigm of Industry 4.0 where digital manufacturing enables the seamless production of goods and services and lights out factories where machines and robots effortlessly produce for our future needs and wants are powerful drivers of a capitalist free market cybertopia For some radicals technology and automation produce the conditions for a Fully Automated Luxury Communism drawing on an interpretation of Marx where human work would be replaced by a life of leisure and abundance for all For others an earlier discourse cybernetics and the use of AI and social media in communication and co ordination enable forms of radical organization through anarchist cybernetics This book questions that technological optimism particularly cybernetics automation and AI through a critique of these technologies and organizational forms Cybernetics and corresponding technologies and forms particularly Industry 4.0 can never capture human forms of creativity and working practices Furthermore there are similar problems with the cybernetic paradigm as a radical form of organization or social movement in terms of human autonomy creativity desire and social prefiguration As counterpoint the book shows through empirical evidence and drawing on interviews with workers or activists in a variety of organizational forms that tacit knowledge and autonomous and spontaneous human projects what the authors define as hobbying are critical in the physical act of making and co operating

Art Hack Practice Victoria Bradbury, Suzy O'Hara, 2019-10-29 Bridging art and innovation this book invites readers into the processes of artists curators cultural producers and historians who are working within new contexts that run parallel to or against the phenomenon of maker culture The book is a fascinating and compelling resource for those interested in critical and interdisciplinary modes of practice that combine arts technology and making It presents international case studies that interrogate perceived distinctions between sites of artistic and economic production by brokering new ways of working between them It also discusses the synergies and dissonances between art and maker culture analyses the social and collaborative impact of maker spaces and reflects upon the ethos of the hackathon within the fabric of a media lab s working practices Art Hack Practice Critical Intersections of Art Innovation and the Maker Movement is essential reading for courses in art design new media computer science media studies and mass communications as well as those working to bring new forms of programming to museums cultural venues commercial venture and interdisciplinary academic research centres

Andrew McLaverty-Robinson,2020-01-31 Homi Bhabha An Introduction and Critique is a pathbreaking three volume study of the celebrated postcolonial scholar s work McLaverty Robinson s careful reading renders Bhabha s theories in plain English without losing their meaning In addition McLaverty Robinson s incisive critique cuts through the theoretical aura of Bhabha s work and explores whether his theories work in practice either empirically or politically This third and final volume explores the political content and implications of Bhabha s work It explores Bhabha s political proposals such as the ideas of a community of suffering and a right to narrate It also explores Bhabha s relationship to neoliberalism and to the Eurocommunist current in the 1980s and his critical engagements with liberalism communitarianism Marxism critical race theory Deleuze and Guattari and Frantz Fanon This volume also includes an entire chapter providing a background on neoliberalism and a comprehensive index covering all three volumes Indian Science Fiction Suparno

Banerjee,2020-10-15 This study includes a larger scope previously not seen in any other critical work about Indian Science Fiction The reader will get an overarching notion of Science Fiction in India not just in one particular language It is a detailed examination of the history of Science Fiction in India The reader will receive a comprehensive idea of the emergence and development of Science Fiction in India over the last two centuries across various languages including discussion on major trends major texts and major authors A timeline of major events is included It is a comparative examination of Science Fiction texts and films from multiple languages e g Assamese Bangla English Hindi Marathi etc Global Digital Cultures

Aswin Punathambekar,Sriram Mohan,2019-06-06 Digital media histories are part of a global network and South Asia is a key nexus in shaping the trajectory of digital media in the twenty first century Digital platforms like Facebook WhatsApp and others are deeply embedded in the daily lives of millions of people around the world shaping how people engage with others as kin as citizens and as consumers Moving away from Anglo American and strictly national frameworks the essays in this book explore the intersections of local national regional and global forces that shape contemporary digital culture s in regions like South Asia the rise of digital and mobile media technologies the ongoing transformation of established media industries and emergent forms of digital media practice and use that are reconfiguring sociocultural political and economic terrains across the Indian subcontinent From massive state driven digital identity projects and YouTube censorship to Tinder and dating culture from Twitter and primetime television to Facebook and political rumors Global Digital Cultures focuses on enduring concerns of representation identity and power while grappling with algorithmic curation and data driven processes of production circulation and consumption Where There is No Midwife Sarah Pinto,2008 In the Sitapur district of Uttar Pradesh an agricultural region with high rates of infant mortality maternal health services are poor while family planning efforts are intensive By following the daily lives of women in this setting the author considers the women s own experiences of birth and infant death their ways of making do and the hierarchies they create and contend with This book develops an approach to the care that focuses on emotion domestic spaces illicit and extra institutional biomedicine and household and neighborly relations that these women are able to access It shows that as part of the concatenation of affect and access globalized moralities about reproduction are dependent on ambiguous ideas about caste Through the unfolding of birth and death a new vision of untouchability emerges that is integral to visions of progress Jacket      Writing India Anew Krishna Sen,Rituparna Roy,2025-10-01 This groundbreaking study assesses the genre of Indian English fiction in the first decade of the twenty first century Some of the most prominent scholars in the field including Rimi B Chatterjee Bill Ashcroft and Shirley Chew explore a range of themes that extend from the re mapping of mythology and history to reassessing the globalised India of today Together they contend that the current body of work of Indian English literature is so varied and vibrant that it can no longer be dismissed as derivative or dispossessed Instead they regard this new corpus of writing to be a major aspect of contemporary Anglophone literature Ultimately the contributors contend that the current body of work in Indian English fiction is so varied and vibrant that it can no longer be dismissed as derivative or dispossessed or even as mere postcolonial writing back or compensatory national allegory      The Ethics of Mobilities Tore Sager,2016-03-23 With this book the international academic discourse on mobility is taken a step further through the intertwined perspectives of different social sciences engineering and the humanities The Ethics of Mobilities departs from the recent interest in social surveillance raised by the use of technology for the surveillance and control of mobility as well as for transport It widens this theme to encompass a broad scale of issues ranging from freedom and escape to social exclusion and control thus raising important questions of ethics identity and religion questions that are dealt with by a diverse yet structured range of chapters arranged around the themes of ethics and religion and freedom and control Through their variety and diversity of perspectives the chapters of this book offer a substantial interdisciplinary contribution to the socially and environmentally relevant discussion about what a technically and economically accelerating mobility does to life and how it might be transformed to sustain a more life enhancing future Ethics of Mobilities will excite not only international interest but will also appeal to scholars across a wide range of disciplines in fields as diverse as theology and engineering      Gods in the Bazaar Kajri Jain,2007-04-06 A theoretically informed cultural study of the design production and circulation of Indian calendar art      The Art of Loving Krishna Cynthia Packert,2010-07-07 Since ancient times Hindus have expressed their love and devotion to their deities through beautiful ornamentation dressing and decorating the deities with elaborate clothing jewelry and flowers In this pioneering study of temples in Vrindaban and Jaipur India Cynthia Packert takes readers across temple thresholds and into the god Krishna s sacred domain She describes what devotees see when they behold gorgeously attired representations of the god and why these images look the way they do She discusses new media as well as global forms of devotion popular in India and abroad The Art of Loving Krishna opens a universe of meaning in which art religious action and devotion are dynamically intertwined Cities Under Siege Stephen Graham,2011-11-01 Cities are the new battleground of our increasingly urban world From the slums of the global South to the wealthy financial centers of the West Cities Under Siege traces the spread of political violence through the sites spaces infrastructure and symbols of the world s rapidly expanding metropolitan areas Drawing on a wealth of original research Stephen Graham shows how Western militaries and security forces now perceive all urban terrain as a conflict zone inhabited by lurking shadow enemies Urban inhabitants have become targets that need to be continually tracked scanned and controlled Graham examines the transformation of Western armies into high tech urban counter insurgency forces He looks at the militarization and surveillance of international borders the use of security concerns to suppress democratic dissent and the enacting of legislation to suspend civilian law In doing so he reveals how the New Military Urbanism permeates the entire fabric of urban life from subway and transport networks hardwired with high tech command and control systems to the insidious militarization of a popular culture corrupted by the all pervasive discourse of terrorism Consumable Texts in Contemporary India S. Gupta,2015-02-23 Through what he terms bibliographical sociology Suman Gupta explores the presence of English language publications in the contemporary Indian context their productions circulations and readerships to understand current social trends Sharing the Burden of Sickness Jonathan Roberts,2021-11-09 A medical history of Accra that accounts for plural medical traditions and multiple notions of health and healing The Melodramatic Public R. Vasudevan,2016-04-30 What does it mean to say Indian movies are melodramatic How do film audiences engage with socio political issues What role has cinema played in the emergence of new economic forms consumer cultures and digital technologies in a globalizing India Ravi Vasudevan addresses these questions in a wide ranging analysis of Indian cinema Souls in the Kalyug Shankar Ramaswami,2025-04-15 How migrant workers in contemporary India strive toward and at times realize elements of a good life The economic development process in India is one that has induced new difficulties and hardships into the lives of poor and working people despite its alleged achievements In villages farming families confront an agrarian crisis with rising costs of seeds fertilizers and pesticides low prices for crops in the face of grave indebtedness and ecological damage to the soil water and forests Due to the scarcity of jobs many migrate to cities for work Once in the city migrants take on and must contend with low paid insecure and hazardous work And in urban neighborhoods they deal with congested living conditions poor qualities of air water and sanitation and separation from their families in the village Souls in the Kalyug introduces readers to migrant workers who are confronting myriad hardships and asks how it is that these workers create lives that can become less injurious than their circumstances might suggest Anthropologist Shankar Ramaswami proposes a three part answer In a metal factory in Delhi migrant workers engage in resistance and collective struggle against perceived oppression and injustice In the city and village they weave connections to one another building friendships in empathetic closeness and fellowship In the metaphysical realm they attempt to resist soul distorting processes in our present decivilizing times or the Kalyug Through these activities migrant workers strive toward and at times realize elements of a good life Souls in the Kalyug ultimately presents a nuanced and intimate portrait of migrant workers through a complex study of entanglement and noncooperation in workers worlds and in its analysis of workers politics within and outside of labor unions interpersonal relationships and foundational religious and cosmological worldviews Contested Commons, Trespassing Publics
