O'Donohoe, Benedict O'Donohoe, 2005 Published on the eve of the philosopher playwright's centenary this study offers a wide ranging re appraisal of Sartre's complete dramatic opus from the inaugural nativity play Bariona 1940 to the swan song chorus of Armageddon Les Troyennes 1965 It draws on a close reading of Sartre's writings in philosophy literature and criticism and provides an extensive survey of journalistic and academic reception Each play is situated in relation both to Sartre's intellectual evolution and to the broader historical context This is the first full length study in English for more than thirty years covering the whole of Sartre's theatre and it will interest students of twentieth century European drama as well as those of modern French literature and ideas      New Tragedy and Comedy in France, 1945-70 Peter Norrish, 1988-06-18 This is a study about the reshaping of tragedy and comedy in serious French drama in the quarter century following World War II It offers an introduction to the most important plays of the period which include those of Sartre Arrabal Beckett Ionesco Camus Montherlant Adamov and Genet      Monographic Series Library of Congress, 1975      Aesthetics and Ideology in Contemporary Literature and Drama René Agostini, Madelena Gonzalez, 2015-09-10 The conviction that the development and promotion of the arts humanities and culture through the study of literature and the aesthetic are the fundamental constituents of any progress in society is at the heart of this volume The essays gathered here explore the role of the imagination and aesthetic awareness in an age when the corporatization of knowledge is in the process of transforming literary studies and political commitment is in danger of disappearing behind a supposedly post ideological late capitalist consensus The main focus of the volume is the mutual implication of aesthetics and ideology and the status and value of different types of art within the political arena Challenging issues in contemporary aesthetics are examined within the wider framework of current debates on the disappearance of the real the crisis in representation and the use of new media The wide range of examples collected here stretching from experimental poetry in post war Germany political commitment in twentieth century French theatre and countercultural Rumanian theatre under Ceau escu to Neo Victorian fiction Verbatim theatre in the UK and political theatre for the masses in Estonia vouchsafe unique insights into the intersection of aesthetics and ideology and the practical consequences thereof As such the volume opens up a space for a meaningful engagement with authentic forms of art from inside and outside the Anglosphere and ultimately uses these examples as a platform from which to imagine some form of aesthetics representing an ideal union of aesthetics and ideology This concept first coined by the French philosopher Philippe Lacoue Labarthe will prove to be relevant both within the parameters of the examples discussed here but also beyond for the contributors to this volume are unanimous in refusing to believe that aesthetics and ideology can exist one without the other and in recognizing the centrality of ethics in any discussion of these notions      Le grand écrivain, cette névrose nationale Johan signification et la place de l'œuvre littéraire d'Antoine Saint-Exupéry dans l'histoire de la littérature et des idées. L'hypothèse est qu'elle manifeste un renversement radical de l'imaginaire d'inspiration platonicienne qui a structuré la plupart des représentations occidentales depuis leurs origines et tout particulièrement les représentations de l'aéronautique. Cette inversion constitue depuis Nietzsche un des enjeux majeurs de la modernité. La première partie de l'ouvrage est consacrée à l'examen méthodique et progressif de la poétique de Saint-Exupéry et de l'imaginaire qu'elle configure. La deuxième partie montre ensuite comment cet imaginaire implique une éthique de la responsabilité qui annonce les développements de la philosophie morale après la Seconde Guerre mondiale chez Sartre et Arendt et comment cette éthique a orienté les positions et les propositions politiques de Saint-Exupéry. Le public. Cet ouvrage s'adresse tous ceux qui amateurs ou spécialistes ont un jour ouvert un livre de Saint-Exupéry et se sont interrogés sur le pouvoir de ses mots. Il concernera aussi les lecteurs qui intéressés l'histoire des idées et des représentations au XXe siècle notamment en rapport avec le développement de l'aéronautique.

L'ambiguïté du Mal Tarmo Kunnas, 2015-09-29 La tradition chrétienne nous a habitués à voir le mal en tant qu'outil de manipulation de Satan. Le mal a cependant un visage multiple et de nombreux masques. Chaque époque et chaque culture trouvent leur propre mal. C'est la littérature et l'art qui peuvent lucider le tre multiforme du mal. Les Fleurs du mal de Charles Baudelaire, le Faust de Goethe, Les frères Karamazov de Dostoïevski illustrent de nombreux types différents du mal. Quand on regarde le mal en face, on peut voir le mal absurde et le mal vil, mais il peut être aussi effrayant et charismatique et dans la stupidité banale peut sommeiller un mal qui cause une grande souffrance et une destruction. L'homme moderne est entouré de symboles du mal, mais la raison en peut être la recherche de la tension vitale entre le bien et le mal. Tarmo Kunnas parvient ici à tracer un parcours intellectuel à travers des époques de l'art et de la littérature de façon remarquable. Il analyse profondément les différentes formes du mal et nous expose en même temps l'horreur du mal et la fascination ternelle qu'il exerce sur l'être humain.

"A Dream of Stone" Michael D. Garval, 2004 With democratization of fame in the wake of the French Revolution writers enjoyed ever greater celebrity status. But in nineteenth century France the availability and perceived impermanence of such renown cheapened it and prompted longing for enduring fame exemplified by monuments, commemorative sculptural or architectural works helping a nation in flux define itself, its past and anticipated future. Within this cultural climate there evolved an ideal of great writers and their work as immortal that envisioned literary greatness through the metaphor of monuments and monumentality. Study draws upon wide-ranging evidence from journalism to poetry, caricature to statuary. Focusing on the lives, work and fame of Honoré de Balzac, George Sand and Victor Hugo, it uncovers the salient features and traces the rise and fall of this monumentalizing vision of literary greatness largely forgotten today yet so central to nineteenth century French culture.
