She is certain she'll never marry, definitely never fall in love. Then she feels a call to work in Africa. She doesn't know when or how but she begins preparations. As the school year progresses she becomes close to four-year-old Jenny who lost her mother at birth. Soon Bethany is babysitting Jenny and she strikes up a friendship with Jenny's strikingly handsome father, a surgeon. Luke has been preparing to return to Africa to continue his mission work as a doctor but he will not go without Jenny. Recognizing that Jenny needs a mother and that Bethany has become a good friend to him, he asks for Bethany's hand in marriage. With their hearts so firmly guarded, neither of them can contemplate ever falling in love, so it seems an ideal solution. When they arrive in Africa, Luke is forced to face haunting memories of the woman he still loves and Bethany's world is turned upside down. Their walls are soon higher and stronger than ever before, driving them apart. Does God have a plan to bring them together unguarded, or have they made the biggest mistake of their lives?
