ACT I

The play commences in darkness. A shofar, or ram's horn, is heard faintly blowing. The lights come up gradually and reveal a hillside down which winds the narrow road to Ramah. A group of Israelites occupies the lower stage. The priests descend the hillside, singing. They are preceded by musicians playing upon a psaltery, a timbrel, a pipe and a harp. Ahimelech & Samuel follow.

This book was born out of necessity and desire of the author to learn about proper church music in regards to melody harmony lyrics instrumentation and rhythm The necessity is for clearer guidelines for pastors and musicians since there are many debates and divisions over worship music The author desired a deeper understanding since he is a professional musician who was criticized for his choice of instruments style and genre This book informs the reader of the musicological and theological aspect of worship music It examines and explains the role of electric instruments and drums in 21st century worship It helps music leaders make better decisions when it comes to building a church band and selecting proper music This book also helps answering some myths people have about instrumentation style rhythm lyrics and harmony in respect to theology culture and musicology vs personal preference This book will encourage today s musicians to explore invent develop and enrich worship with their music It will also help mend the gap between generations in regards to change as good Christians will realize that drums were not invented by the devil and if rightly used could be a wonderful addition to the church band Cumulative List of Organizations Described in Section 170 (c) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, 1987 See My Purpose: 20 Plays Samuel Williams, 2011-01-03
See My Purpose 20 Plays by Samuel Williams is a collection of 20 Of the author s contemporary creative works with contents that range from gangs to God This compilation of inspired didactic works is sure to both entertain as well as enlighten its every reader whether they be 8 or 80 The poignant and powerful messages contained in each of these works transcend all barriers of ethnicity socio economics religions genders political persuasions and other such natural divides in our society and rather focus their intention purpose and energy on identifying and destroying the inherent destructive and debilitating forces and influences present at every level of man's existence regardless of his possessions successes or titles The messages and realism in these works is as applicable to a Jewish family as they are to a Hindu Causasian Hispanic Asian or Afro American family See My Purpose is just that the author's attempt and intent to allow the world to see his divinely appointed purpose through the craft of drama The Holy Bible, Etc.
