Transmodern Christian Kravagna, 2022-10-11 How can we reconfigure our picture of modern art after the postcolonial turn without simply adding regional art histories to the Eurocentric canon Transmodern examines the global dimension of modern art by tracing the crossroads of different modernisms in Asia Europe and the Americas Featuring case studies in Indian modernism the Harlem Renaissance and post war abstraction it demonstrates the significance of transcultural contacts between artists from both sides of the colonial divide The book argues for the need to study non western avant gardes and Black avant gardes within the west as transmodern counter currents to mainstream modernism It situates transcultural art practices from the 1920s to the 1960s within the framework of anti colonial movements and in relation to contemporary transcultural thinking that challenged colonial concepts of race and culture with notions of syncretism and hybridity

constraints of the past and make clear the way toward the future Adorno's 'Minima Moralia' in the 21st Century

Caren Irr, 2021-11-18 This interdisciplinary volume revisits Adorno's lesser known work Minima Moralia and makes the case for its application to the most urgent concerns of the 21st century. Contributing authors situate Adorno at the heart of contemporary debates on the ecological crisis, the changing nature of work, the idea of utopia, and the rise of fascism. Exploring the role of critical pedagogy in shaping responses to fascistic regimes alongside discussions of extractive economies and the need for leisure under increasingly precarious working conditions, this volume makes new connections between Minima Moralia and critical theory today. Another line of focus is the aphoristic style of Minima Moralia and its connection to Adorno's wider commitment to small and minor literary forms which enable capitalist critique to be both subversive and poetic. This critique is further located in Adorno's discussion of a utopia that is reliant on complete rejection of the totalising system of capitalism. The distinctive feature of such a utopia for Adorno is dependent upon individual suffering and subsequent survival, an argument this book connects to the mutually constitutive relationship between ecological destruction and right wing authoritarianism. These timely readings of Adorno's Minima Moralia teach us to adapt through our survival and to pursue a utopia based on his central ideas. In the process, opening up theoretical spaces and collapsing the physical borders between us in the spirit of Adorno's lifelong project. In the Australian Bush and on the Coast of the Coral Sea

A BATTLE OF WILLS: Spirited heiress Libbie Winters is horrified to find herself in the midst of an Apache rebellion and amazed to discover that her captor, a scout named Cougar, is the same man who offered her his prized Apache Tears necklace a year before. And though she is promised in marriage to a vengeful cavalry officer, Libbie cannot forget her powerful attraction to the fearless Apache hero. A BLAZE OF PASSION: Believing she has rejected his gift, Cougar's heart is hardened toward the haughty white girl he now holds for ransom. Yet he cannot deny the desire this flame-haired beauty arouses in him, or the love he longs to give her. He knows it is impossible to hold the fiery woman whose spirit is as free as his own, unless Libbie makes the dangerous choice to embrace the passion burning between them. Praise for the writing of Georgina Gentry: Georgina has done it again! Madeline Baker, New York Times bestselling author. Strongly crafted characters. Sizzling sexuality.
