Mothers and Sons Andrea O'Reilly,2002-06-01 The relationship between mothers and sons has been explored for ages

From Oedipus to Al Brooks Mother we are fascinated by the familial bond between a mother and her son This groundbreaking work looks at many untouched areas of the mother son relationship including race sexuality and ability The contributors to this collection speak from the heart and explore how the institution of motherhood oppresses women impedes mother son identification and fosters sexism The impact of the feminist movement on the mother son relationship which has been previously neglected in literature is explored in depth in Mothers and Sons _ These deeply personal reflections includes stories of lesbian mothers identifying challenges in raising sons in our heterosexist culture as well as black mothers and sons and Jewish mothers For all with an interest in family issues gender issues or a new perspective on mothering this book is a must read

In (M)other Words Andrea O'Reilly, 2024-04-30 Dr Andrea O'Reilly is internationally recognized as the founder of Motherhood Studies 2006 and its subfield Maternal Theory 2007 and creator of the concept of Matricentric Feminism a feminism for and about mothers 2016 and Matricritics a literary theory and practice for a reading of mother focused texts 2021 With this collection O'Reilly continues the conversation on the meaning and nature of motherhood initiated by Adrienne Rich in Of Woman Born close to fifty years ago In In Mother Words O'Reilly shares 25 of her chapters and articles published between 2009 2024 to examine the oppressive and empowering dimensions of mothering and to explore motherhood as institution experience subjectivity and empowerment The collection considers the central themes and theories of motherhood studies including normative motherhood feminist mothering maternal regret matricentric pedagogy young mothers academic motherhood matricentric feminism matricritics motherhood and feminism the motherhood memoir the twenty first century motherhood movement mothers and daughters mothers and sons pandemic mothering and the motherline

Toni Morrison and Motherhood Andrea O'Reilly, 2012-02-01 Traces Morrison's theory of African American mothering as it is articulated in her novels essays speeches and interviews Mothering is a central issue for feminist theory and motherhood is also a persistent presence in the work of Toni Morrison Examining Morrison's novels essays speeches and interviews Andrea O'Reilly illustrates how Morrison builds upon black women's experiences of and perspectives on motherhood to develop a view of black motherhood that is in terms of both maternal identity and role radically different from motherhood as practiced and prescribed in the dominant culture Motherhood in Morrison's view is fundamentally and profoundly an act of resistance essential and integral to black women's fight against racism and sexism and their ability to achieve well being for themselves and their culture The power of motherhood and the empowerment of mothering are what make possible the better world we seek for ourselves and for our children This argues O'Reilly is Morrison's maternal theory a politics of the heart As an advocate of a politics of the heart O'Reilly has an acute insight into discerning any threat to the preservation and continuation of traditional African American womanhood and values Above all Toni Morrison and Motherhood based on Andrea O'Reilly's methodical research on Morrison's works as well as feminist critical resources proffers a useful basis for understanding Toni Morrison's works It certainly contributes to exploring in detail Morrison's rich and complex works notable from the perspectives of nurturing and sustaining African American maternal tradition African American Review O'Reilly boldly reconfigures hegemonic western notions of motherhood while maintaining dialogues across cultural differences Journal of the Association for Research on Mothering Andrea O'Reilly examines Morrison's complex presentations of and theories about motherhood with admirable rigor and a refusal to simplify and the result is one of the most penetrating and insightful studies of Morrison yet to appear a book that will prove invaluable to any scholar teacher or reader of Morrison South Atlantic Review it serves as a sort of annotated bibliography of nearly all the major theoretical work on motherhood and on Morrison as an author anyone conducting serious study of either Toni Morrison or motherhood not to mention the combination should read this book O'Reilly's exhaustive research her facility with theories of Anglo American and Black feminism and her penetrating analyses of Morrison's works result in a highly useful scholarly read Literary Mama By tracing both the metaphor and literal practice of mothering in Morrison's literary world O'Reilly conveys Morrison's vision of motherhood as an act of resistance American Literature Motherhood is critically important as a recurring theme in Toni Morrison's oeuvre and within black feminist and feminist scholarship An in-depth analysis of this central concern is necessary in order to explore the complex disjunction between Morrison's interviews which praise black mothering and the fiction which presents mothers in various destructive and self-destructive modes Kudos to Andrea O'Reilly for illuminating Morrison's maternal standpoint and helping readers and critics understand this difficult terrain Toni Morrison and Motherhood is also valuable as a resource that addresses and synthesizes a huge body of secondary literature Nancy Gerber author of Portrait of the Mother Artist Class and Creativity in Contemporary American Fiction In addition to presenting a penetrating and original reading of Toni Morrison O'Reilly integrates the evolving scholarship on motherhood in dominant and minority cultures in a review that is both a composite of commonalities and a clear representation of differences Elizabeth Bourque Johnson University of Minnesota Andrea O'Reilly is Associate Professor in the School of Women's Studies at York University and President of the Association for Research on Mothering She is the author and editor of several books on mothering including with Sharon Abbey Mothers and Daughters Connection Empowerment and Transformation and Mothers and Sons Feminism Masculinity and the Struggle to Raise Our Sons mothering will find it an invaluable guide      Mother Outlaws Andrea O'Reilly, 2004-05-13 Feminist scholars of motherhood distinguish between mothering and motherhood and argue that the latter is a patriarchal institution that is oppressive to women Few scholars however have considered how mothering as a female defined and centred experience may be a site of empowerment for women This collection is the first to do so Mother Outlaws examines how mothers imagine and implement theories and practices of mothering that are empowering to women Central to this inquiry is the recognition that mothers and children benefit when the mother lives her life and practices mothering from a position of agency authority authenticity and autonomy      Black Enterprise ,1995-09 BLACK ENTERPRISE is the ultimate source for wealth creation for African American professionals entrepreneurs and corporate executives Every month BLACK ENTERPRISE delivers timely useful information on careers small business and personal finance      Black Enterprise ,1995-09 BLACK ENTERPRISE is the ultimate source for wealth creation for African American professionals entrepreneurs and corporate executives Every month BLACK ENTERPRISE delivers timely useful information on careers small business and personal finance      The Secrets for Motivating, Educating, and Lifting the Spirit of African American Males Ernest H. Johnson, 2011-11-21 Unlike the media would have you believe most black males find great value in education They want to believe that they have a special gift and that they can make a difference in the world The problem is that they have ill feelings about how society has deprived them of the most qualified teachers and the best ways to be engaged in their own education As a consequence of repeatedly being marginalized criticized and put down by society and teachers they do not feel motivated to attend school or to produce outstanding academic work The Secrets for Motivating Educating and Lifting the Spirit of African American Males contains essays that center on how to help educators and parents to equip young black males with the drive necessary to craft fulfilling lives for themselves so they don't slip through the cracks in the educational system Historically we are still dealing with what happens to the image of Black people in the minds of white people A book like this helps to make certain that the information teachers provide to all students regardless of their race will help them understand that the history of this country has made generation after generation of black students see themselves as academically and socially inferior to white people Most importantly it's the teachers not just black teachers but all teachers who have to understand the power they have to change the mindset of society Changing how society thinks about Black people particularly Black males is a task teachers can truly accomplish because they have the power to create lesson plans that challenge how students think about each other For such lessons are important for changing the attitudes and beliefs of the entire community in which we live REVEREND C T VIVIAN A Pioneer of the Civil Rights Movement Author Educator and a Close Friend of Reverend Dr Martin Luther King Jr This book provides a fresh perspective for understanding the problems associated with the education of Black males As a minister I have not encountered a project that gathers the collective wisdom of a group of over 20 Black male educators who are dedicated to helping the world save young Black males When all their ideas come together they are bound to create a storm of new thinking about how all of us can work together As a spiritual leader my role is to help young Black males understand that the same God that was in Dr King is the same God that is in them This is a difficult lesson for some Black males who have been brainwashed to see themselves as having no say about the outcome of their lives This book will help us including those in the ministry to reevaluate the thinking patterns of our boys so that we can better prepare them for the critical thinking that is required for life in the 21st century REVEREND ROBERT KILGORE Assistant Pastor at Hillside International Truth Center Atlanta GA Urban Public Spaces, Events, and Gun Violence Melvin Delgado, 2024-09-09 This book offers a new vision on urban gun violence that focuses on public space centered concepts events and research It builds on our existing knowledge base by viewing a slice of this problem through celebratory and solemn occasions and how violence at these events and spaces reflects on the state of urban gun violence Understanding this context serves to inform us on how best to address this social phenomenon Gun violence in the United States is a salient national problem with virtually no day that goes by without it occurring particularly in urban public spaces making it a significant social event This book uniquely presents an urban and event focused context for gun violence It also draws attention to marginalized urban communities merging urban public spaces events intersectionality social justice and gun violence introducing a unique window to better comprehend this violence as a national issue and bringing profound consequences when it transpires in a public event To examine the context of public spaces and events in gun violence the author organized the book's ten chapters in three sections Part I Conceptual Foundation sets the foundation for a multifaceted perspective Part II Celebratory and Solemn Events expands the gun violence arena Part III Implications for Research Education and Practice Urban Public Spaces Events and Gun Violence Block Parties Funerals Mother's Day and Other Community Events expands the context of gun violence beyond the street scene to include public settings and events and helps in achieving a comprehensive understanding of this public health problem and how best to solve it The book is essential reading for practitioners academics and researchers in public health social work criminal justice and community practice

The Emotional Lives of Teenagers Lisa Damour, Ph.D., 2024-02-20 NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLER An urgently needed guide to help parents understand their teenagers intense and often fraught emotional lives and how to support teens through this critical developmental stage from the author of Untangled and Under Pressure Dr Lisa Damour worked as an expert collaborator on Pixar's Inside Out 2 How are we supposed to get our kids through these daunting years There are countless books on the subject but The Emotional Lives of Teenagers is the nuanced empathetic one I wish I'd had when I was in the trenches Judith Newman The New York Times Book Review In teenagers powerful emotions come with the territory And as teens contend with academic pressure social media stress worries about the future and concerns about their own mental health it's easy for them and their parents to feel anxious and overwhelmed But it doesn't have to be that way Parents who read this book will learn what to expect in the normal course of adolescent emotional development and when it's time to worry why teens and adults need to understand that mental health isn't about feeling good but about having feelings that fit the moment even if those feelings are unwanted or painful strategies for supporting teens who feel at the mercy of their emotions so they can become psychologically aware and skilled at managing their feelings how to approach common challenges that come with adolescence such as friction at home spiking anxiety risky behavior navigating friendships and romances the pull of social media and many more the best ways to stay connected to their teens and how to provide the kind of relationship that adolescents need and want With clear research informed explanations alongside illuminating real life examples The Emotional Lives of Teenagers gives parents the concrete practical information they need to steady their teens through the bumpy yet transformational journey into adulthood Beating the Odds Freeman A. Hrabowski III, Kenneth I. Maton, Geoffrey L. Greif, 1998-04-02 Today young Black men are more likely to be killed or sent to prison than to graduate from college Yet despite all the obstacles some are achieving at the highest academic and professional levels Beating the Odds tells their remarkable stories and shows us what African American families have done to raise academically successful sons sons who are among the top two percent of African American males in terms of SAT scores and grades The result of extensive and innovative research Beating the Odds goes beyond mere analysis and beyond the relentlessly negative media images to show us precisely how young Black men can succeed despite the roadblocks of racism the temptations of crime and drugs and a popular culture that values being cool over being educated By interviewing parents and children from a range of economic and educational backgrounds and from both single and two parent homes the authors identify those constants that contribute to academic achievement and offer step by step guidance on six essential strategies for effective parenting child focused love strong limit setting and discipline continually high expectations open consistent and strong communication positive racial identity and positive male identity and full use of community resources The proof of the effectiveness of such strategies is in the sons themselves who speak eloquently in these pages about their struggles and successes in both the classroom and the often hostile world that surrounds it Essential reading for parents teachers and school administrators Beating the Odds offers insight guidance and hope for anyone concerned about the plight of young African American men and the society they live in The African-American Male Jacob U. Gordon, 1999-07-30 The plight of the Black male in American society has been well documented by scholars and practitioners Although Black males represent only 6 percent of the American population they represent about 40 percent of the prison population the number of Black males in prison and jail exceeds the number of Black males in higher education The homicide rates for Black males were 72.5 percent per 100 000 nearly eight times higher than for White males This bibliographic volume explores the extent to which American academia has addressed these problems It will be an invaluable resource for researchers as well as practitioners in social service programs In addition to more than 400 annotated publications the book includes a selected list of works on the African American male and a compilation of doctoral dissertations This publication will serve as a reference in public as well as academic libraries human service agencies government policymaking agencies and in academic courses in gender and ethnic studies criminal justice and social psychology
