Saving Work Feminist Practices Of Theological Education:

Saving Work Rebecca S. Chopp, 1995-01-01 Rebecca S Chopp looks at how women and men are actually forming a new Christian praxis through their engagement with feminist practices and thought that often exist outside the sphere of official recognition Reenvisioning Theological Education Robert Banks, 1999 A top leadership theorist offers a compelling proposal for renovating the way religious education is practiced today Christian colleges and seminaries have not been immune from the cultural influences shaping contemporary education Challenging the conventional wisdom advanced by the educational debate during the last fifteen years Robert Banks builds an innovative new model of theological education based on how ministry formation took place in biblical times Banks takes full account of key issues raised by our current educational context and shows how a missional model of education is more holistic inclusive and practical than recent versions Handbook of Theological Education in World Christianity Dietrich Werner, David Esterline, Namsoon Kang, Joshva Raja, 2010-11-19 The Handbook of Theological Education in World Christianity is the first attempt to map and analyze developments in theological education on a global scale This volume with contributions from 98 leaders in theological education from around the world provides a comprehensive introduction to the major themes and contexts in the international discourse on theological education surveys of the issues and challenges faced in different regions and introductory essays on the developments in the major denominational families in World Christianity The editors are Dietrich Werner World Council of Churches Geneva David Esterline McCormick Theological Seminary Chicago Namsoon Kang Brite Divinity School Fort Worth and Joshva Raja Queen s Foundation Birmingham Transforming Graduate Biblical Education Elisabeth Schüssler Fiorenza, Kent Harold Richards, 2010 This unique collection of essays originating in seminars held at SBL s Annual and International Meetings explores the current ethos and discipline of graduate biblical education from different social locations and academic contexts It includes international voices of well established scholars who have urged change for some time alongside younger scholars with new perspectives The individual contributions emerge from a variegated set of experiences in graduate biblical studies and a critical analysis of those experiences The volume is divided into four areas of investigation The first section discusses the ethos of biblical studies and social location and the second explores different cultural national formations of the discipline The third section considers the experiences and visions of graduate biblical studies while the last section explores how to transform the discipline All the contributions offer ways to transform graduate biblical education so that it becomes a socializing power that in turn can transform the present academic ethos of biblical studies Back cover Feminism and Christian Tradition Mary-Paula Walsh, 1999-05-30 This annotated bibliography a volume in the Greenwood series Bibliographies and Indexes in Religious Studies provides access to the numerous writings from the 1960s through the 1990s on feminism and Christian tradition Major feminist theologians and sociologists are represented As a guide to further research this cross disciplinary approach presents themes and issues in both a historical and a topical framework An extensive overview of feminism in relation to the women s movement women s studies sociology and American religion introduces the literature and provides a historical context for the nearly one thousand entries that follow Cross referenced throughout the literature is presented in six thematic categories that include introductory and background materials feminism and the development of feminist theology topical literatures in feminist theology feminism and womanist theology religious leadership of women and responses and recent developments Separate author subject and title indexes complete the volume Church, Identity, and Change David A. Roozen, James R. Nieman, 2005-05-02 Since colonial days religious work in American has happened through denominations At least since the start of the twentieth century these religious bodies consisted of a fairly tight intra denominationally connected system of congregations regional judicatories and national offices This system was the product of more than two centuries of consolidation among Americanbs historic immigrant and indigenous churches The vast majority of these structures are still in place retain some semblance of internal coherence have considerable social and religious significance and will be with us for the foreseeable future Nevertheless the stresses upon them today clearly indicate that they are entering an unsettled period of transition The purpose of this book is to examine the national structures of eight diverse Protestant denominations as a part of that shift The frame of this study is the relationship between the theological and organizational nature of national denominational structures as they adapt to the changing situation of the twenty first century The Wiley Blackwell Companion to Practical Theology Bonnie J. Miller-McLemore, 2014-01-07 Through a series of essays contributed by leading experts in the field The Wiley Blackwell Companion to Practical Theology presents an introduction to practical theology as a major area of Christian study and practice including an overview of its key developments themes methods and future directions The first comprehensive reference work to provide a survey description and analysis of practical theology as an area of study A range of leading scholars in the field provide original contributions on the major areas issues and figures in practical theology Reviews an extensive range of methods for studying theology in practice along with sub disciplines in theological education such as pastoral care and preaching Covers developments in the discipline in a range of global contexts and distinct Christian traditions Shows how practical theology is relevant to everyday life Getting Religion Kenneth L. Woodward, 2017-11-14 In this thoughtful book Ken Woodward offers us a memorable portrait of the past seven decades of American life and culture From Reinhold Niebuhr to Billy Graham from Abraham Heschel to the Dali Lama from George W Bush to Hillary Clinton Woodward captures the personalities and charts the philosophical trends that have shaped the way we live now Jon Meacham author of Destiny and Power Impeccably researched thought challenging and leavened by wit Getting Religion the highly anticipated new book from Kenneth L Woodward is ideal perfect for readers looking to understand how religion came to be a contentious element in 21st century public life Here the award winning author blends memoir especially of the postwar era with copious reporting and shrewd historical analysis to tell the story of how American religion culture and politics influenced each other in the second half of the 20th century There are few people writing today who could tell this important story with such authority and insight A scholar as well as one of the nation s most respected journalists Woodward served as Newsweek s religion editor for nearly forty years reporting from five continents and contributing over 700 articles including nearly 100 cover stories on a wide range of social issues ideas and movements Beginning with a bold reassessment of the Fifties Woodward s narrative weaves through Civil Rights era and the movements that followed in its wake the anti Vietnam movement Liberation theology in Latin America the rise of Evangelicalism and decline of mainline Protestantism women s liberation and Bible the turn to Asian spirituality the transformation of the family and emergence of religious cults and the embrace of righteous politics by both the Republican and Democratic Parties Along the way Woodward provides riveting portraits of many of the era s major figures preachers like Billy Graham and Jerry Falwell politicians Mario Cuomo and Hillary Clinton movement leaders Daniel Berrigan Abraham Joshua Heschel and Richard John Neuhaus influential thinkers ranging from Erik Erikson to Elizabeth Kubler Ross feminist theologians Rosemary Reuther and Elizabeth Schussler Fiorenza and est impresario Werner Erhardt plus the author s long time friend the Dalai Lama For readers interested in how religion economics family life and politics influence each other Woodward introduces fresh a fresh vocabulary of terms such as embedded religion movement religion and entrepreneurial religion to illuminate the interweaving of the secular and sacred in American public life This is one of those rare books that changes the way Americans think about belief behavior and belonging

The Future of Liberal Theology Mark D. Chapman, 2017-11-22 This title was first published in 2002 Two hundred years after the publication of Schleiermacher s epoch making Speeches The Future of Liberal Theology presents a comprehensive and critical re assessment of the past present and future of the liberal tradition in Christian theology In dialogue with the different forms of liberalism emerging from the Enlightenment each of which is carefully defined distinguished international theologians draw on a range of perspectives which represent the diversity of liberal theology Discussing the criticisms of liberalism offered in the twentieth century and engaging with contemporary theological debate which is often deeply hostile to liberalism the conclusions offered for liberal theology range from the deeply pessimistic to the thoroughly optimistic Students clergy and theological educators more broadly will value this critical reflection on the current state of theology and suggestions for its future course together with the serious engagement with issues in theological education which this book presents

Welcoming Children Joyce Ann Mercer, 2005-11-01 This book develops a theology of childhood both from a theoretical basis in biblical theology especially the gospel of Mark and practical experience in children and youth ministry Mercer builds on classical theologians such as Augustine Calvin Barth and Rahner as well as modern feminist theologians such as Brock and Russell She gains insights from pastoral theologians such as Capps and Couture and from contemporary cultural criticism Mercer challenges approaches to educational and liturgical practices with children in congregations that segregate children from the rest of the church and its key practices of service mission worship care and learning She reframes ministries with children as processes through which the church as a community of practice forms children into an alternative identity that resists surrounding consumerist culture and walks in the ways of Jesus This book offers strategies for educational practices with children in congregations as it seeks to address the question What might educational practices that welcome children and contribute to their flourishing look like in the context of a faith community where children s learning happens in collaboration with experienced practitioners of faith Outlining a feminist practical theology of childhood it explores five basic theological claims 1 children as gifts and parenting as a religious practice of stewardship 2 welcoming those who welcome and care for children 3 children as already fully human 4 children as part of the purposes of God and 5 acknowledging and transforming the sufferings of children

A Well-Furnished Heart James T. Flynn, Wie Liang Tjong, Russell W. West, 2002

Education for Reflective Ministry J. A. van der Ven, 1998 The picture that pastors have of themselves and of their experiences in the ministry is ambivalent On the one hand they find the pastoral work which they perform meaningful important and relevant On the other hand pastors suffer from chronic stress of some sort caused by different factors on the micro meso and macro level of religion church and society Many pastors experience the modernization and subsequently the secularization process as a very serious problem which negatively influences religious life within the parish Pastors are bowed down by uncertainty over how their work contributes to the parish mission in today s society and even more so by doubts over what that mission is in particular the diaconal mission Which direction can shall should the pastor take if neither the church nor the theological institutions are able to provide him or her with a clear frame of reference an attractive perspective a convincing policy a plausible course of action and a meaningful set of aims goals and objectives There is no alternative but to risk taking responsibility for oneself and choosing one s own course of action To take this risk is not reckless or foolhardy as long as the choices are always informed by a religious self reflection that is open to tradition as well as to the future This allows the pastor to be his own guide to transgress useless customs and habits and cross the boundaries into as yet unknown territory The task of education must be to provide the foundation that enables the pastor to make those choices and take those risks in a well considered prudent and truly religious manner This study represents not only an interpretative description of some of the education for ministry in today s societal cultural and ecclesiastical context in the western world but also a proposal for a new model the reflective ministry model

Images of Pastoral Care Robert C Dykstra, 2005-01-01 This book is an edited volume of works that have predominated over the past several decades in contemporary pastoral theology Through the writings of nineteen leading voices in the history of pastoral care Dykstra shows how each contributor developed a metaphor for understanding pastoral care Such metaphors include the solicitous shepherd the wounded healer the intimate stranger the midwife and other tangible images Through these works the reader gains a sense of the varied identities of pastoral care professionals their struggles for recognition in this often controversial field and insight into the history of the disciple
