McNamara, 2010-05-06 Diverse vibrant and challenging as the city itself this Companion is the definitive guide to LA in literature Memory and the Built Environment in 20th-Century American Literature Alice Levick, 2021-05-20 From the paving of the Los Angeles River in 1938 and the creation of the G I Bill in 1944 to the construction of the Interstate Highway System during the late 1950s and the brownstoning movement of the 1970s throughout the mid 20th century the United States saw a wave of changes that had an enduring impact on the development of urban spaces Focusing on the relationship between processes of demolition and restoration as they have shaped the modern built environment and the processes by which memory is constructed hidden or remade in the literary text this book explores the ways in which history becomes entangled with the urban space in which it plays out Alice Levick takes stock of this history both in the form of its externalised concretised manifestation and its more symbolic representation as depicted in the mid 20th century work of a selection of American writers Calling upon access to archival material and interviews with New York academics authors local historians and urban planners this book locates Freud s Uncanny in the cracks between the absent and present invisible and visible memory and history as they are presented in city narratives demonstrating both the passage of time and the imposition of 20th century modernism With reference to the works of D J Waldie Joan Didion Hisaye Yamamoto Raymond Chandler Marshall Berman Gil Cuadros Paule Marshall L J Davis and Paula Fox Memory and the Built Environment in 20th Century American Literature unpacks how time becomes visible in Los Angeles Sacramento Lakewood and New York in the decades just before and after the Second World War questioning how these spaces provide access to the past in both narrative and spatial forms and how at times this access is blocked From Shadow to Presence Jelena Šesnic, 2007-01-01 This volume departs from a more static concept of identity politics to engage the varied and entangled processes of ethnic racial national and gender identifications in a range of contemporary US ethnic texts from the mid 1960s to the mid 1990s Recognizing the growing salience of variously named ethnic multicultural and minority literatures as they are produced and circulated in the USA and worldwide nowadays this work charts four broadly defined models of approaching such texts cultural nationalism ethnic feminism borderlands and contact zones and finally the diasporic model Drawing extensively on psychoanalytic theory feminist gender studies critical race theory postcolonial theory and its revision of ethnography the book offers a fresh engaged theoretically and analytically well rehearsed overview of the distinctive and determining features of a rapidly expanding domain of contemporary US literary production namely ethnic literatures Of potential interest to scholars of American US literature but also minority and postcolonial literatures and to students of American literature the book attempts an interethnic comparative approach to well and lesser known texts Among the authors represented are Shawn Wong Oscar Zeta Acosta Toni Morrison Maxine Hong Kingston Sherman Alexie Denise Ch vez Rolando Hinojosa Roberto Fernandez and Edwidge Danticat Dynamic Form Cara L. Lewis, 2020-07-15 Dynamic Form traces how intermedial experiments shape modernist texts from 1900 to 1950 Considering literature alongside painting sculpture photography and film Cara Lewis examines how these arts inflect narrative movement contribute to plot events and configure poetry and memoir As forms and formal theories cross from one artistic realm to another and back again modernism shows its obsession with form and even at times becomes a formalism itself but as Lewis writes that form is far more dynamic than we have given it credit for Form fulfills such various functions that we cannot characterize it as a mere container for content or matter nor can we consign it to ignominy opposite historicism or political commitment As a structure or scheme that enables action form in modernism can be plastic protean or even fragile and works by Henry James Virginia Woolf Mina Loy Evelyn Waugh and Gertrude Stein demonstrate the range of form's operations Revising three major formal paradigms spatial form pure form and formlessness and recasting the history of modernist form this book proposes an understanding of form as a verbal category as a kind of doing Dynamic Form thus opens new possibilities for conversation between modernist studies and formalist studies and simultaneously promotes a capacious rethinking of the convergence between literary modernism and creative work in other media Maverick Autobiographies Cathryn Halverson, 2004 Halverson examines why and
