Blumenfeld-Kosinski, N. Warren, D. Robertson, 2002-06-28 The late medieval movement into vernacular theology as it has come to be called inspired many forms of literary expression in all the languages of Europe Spanning a wide field the contributors to this volume consider hagiography translations of and commentaries on scripture accounts of visionary experiences and devotional literature Their essays illuminate encounters with the divine mediated through language bringing into play a diversity of national cultures and disciplinary points of view They also engage vital social and political issues connected with religious experience including challenges to authority reinterpretations of texts and renegotiations of gender roles

Transforming Spirit Bodies Sinah Theres Kloß, Lena Muders, Taynã Tagliati, 2025-03-17 Transforming Spirit Bodies is an edited volume that focuses on the bodies and embodiments of spirits their im materialities and their bodily transformations The anthropological sociological and archaeological contributions draw attention to the embodied experiences of asymmetrical dependencies among humans and spirits and how experiences of inter dependence are negotiated in their interactions Suggesting that more than human entities significantly contribute to agency in social interactions and power negotiations the volume further highlights the ambivalent yet undeniable relationship between spirits and materiality During the processes of materialization and dematerialization in which spirit bodies transform and are transformed more than human entities may share substances and agency with humans Not only having material but also social dimensions these dynamics are influenced by relations of power and dependency Following posthumanist approaches this volume therefore challenges the anthropocentric views that continue to dominate scholarly analysis of power relations dependency and coercion

The Spirit of Vatican II Gerd-Rainer Horn, 2015-06-04 Vatican II profoundly changed the outlook and the message of the Catholic Church After decades if not centuries in which Catholic public opinion appeared to be primarily oriented towards the distant past and bygone societal models suddenly the Catholic Church embraced the world as it was and it joined in the struggle to create a radiant future The Sixties were a time of great socio cultural and political ferment in Europe as a whole Especially the second half of the 1960s and the first half of the 1970s witnessed an astounding range of new and old social movements reaching for the sky Catholic activists provided fuel to the fire in more ways than one Catholics had embarked on the quest for new horizons for some years prior to the sudden growth of secular activism in and around the magic year of 1968 When secular radicals joined up with Catholic activists a seemingly unstoppable dynamic was unleashed This book covers five crucial contributions by Catholic communities to the burgeoning atmosphere of those turbulent years a the theological innovations of Vatican II which made such an unprecedented engagement of Catholics possible in the first place but also post conciliar theological developments b the resurgence of the worker priest experiment and the first ever creation of autonomous organisations of radical parish priests c the simultaneous creation of grassroots organisations base communities by mostly lay activists across the continent d the crucial roles of Catholic students in the multiform student movements shaping Europe in these years e the indispensable contributions of Catholic workers who helped shape and often initiated the wave of militant contestations shaking up labour relations after 1968 Archivo ibero-americano, 1920

Los archivos de The Spirit 22, Leer, 2005 Archivo Hospitalario. Número 13. Año 2015 Archivo-Museo San Juan de Dios "Casa de los Pisa", Fundación Juan Ciudad, ARCHIVOS SPIRIT 26, Archivo americano y espíritu de la prensa del mundo, Boletín de los archivos de la República de Cuba, 1927 Anti-Catholicism in the Mexican Revolution, 1913-1940 Jürgen Buchenau, David S. Dalton, 2024-12-01 Anti Catholicism in the Mexican Revolution 1913 1940 examines anti Catholic leaders and movements during the Mexican Revolution an era that resulted in a constitution denying the Church political rights Anti Catholic Mexicans recognized a common enemy in a politically active Church in a predominantly Catholic nation Many books have elucidated the popular roots and diversity of Roman Catholicism in Mexico but the perspective of the Church's adversaries has remained much less understood This volume provides a fresh perspective on the violent conflict between Catholics and the revolutionary state which was led by anti Catholics such as Plutarco Elías Calles who were bent on eradicating the influence of the Catholic Church in politics in the nation's educational system and in the national consciousness The zeal with which anti Catholics pursued their goals and the equal vigor with which Catholics defended their Church and their faith explains why the conflict between Catholics and anti Catholics turned violent culminating in the devastating Cristero Rebellion 1926 1929 Collecting essays by a team of senior scholars in history and cultural studies the book includes chapters on anti Catholic leaders and intellectuals movements promoting scientific education and anti alcohol campaigns muralism feminist activists and Mormons and Mennonites A concluding afterword by Matthew Butler a global authority on twentieth century Mexican religion provides a larger perspective on the themes of the book
