Finding Our Voice Matthew D. Kim, Daniel L. Wong, 2020-06-17 No one preaches in a cultural vacuum The message of what God has done in Christ is good news to all but to have the greatest impact on its hearers or even to be understood at all it must be culturally contextualized Finding Our Voice speaks clearly to an issue that has largely been ignored preaching to Asian North American ANA contexts In addition to reworking hermeneutics theology and homiletics for these overlooked contexts Kim and Wong include examples of culturally specific sermons and instructive questions for contextualizing one's own sermons Finding Our Voice is essential reading for all who preach and teach in ANA contexts But by examining this kind of contextualization in action all who preach in their own unique contexts will benefit from this approach possible selves to facilitate the process of congregational exegesis in the second generation Korean American church context This book offers a new contextual homiletic model that enables Korean American preachers to engage in deeper levels of ethnic and cultural analysis in their sermon preparation Simultaneously the author reconstructs conventional preaching roles of Korean American preachers and second generation listeners so that they may co creatively imagine new possible selves that radically advance Christian mission and practice in the world This book will serve as a primary or secondary source for upper level undergraduate graduate and postgraduate courses on preaching communication studies ethnic and racial studies cross cultural ministry or social psychology

the world to engage God through his chosen cast of characters As the media eras continue to change oral to print to digital virtual too many Bible scholars and consequently pastors and Bible teachers in the West and beyond lack capability to effectively communicate Scripture to Millennials Gen Z and Gen Alpha These generations find little if any relevance in the Christianity promoted by those stuck in modernity's sticky abstract systematic theology Character Theology relates sticks and transforms these generations Why Because people grasp and engage God most naturally and precisely through his interaction with biblical characters and their interaction with each other Characters communicate the Creator's characteristics The roadmap to the recovery and expansion of Christianity in the twenty first century will be through Bible characters
