Bounded Wilderness Kathryn Jasper, 2024-10-15 In Bounded Wilderness Kathryn Jasper focuses on the innovations undertaken at the hermitage of Fonte Avellana in central Italy during the eleventh century by its prior Peter Damian d 1072 The congregation of Fonte Avellana experimented with reforming practices that led to new ways of managing property and relations among clergy nobles and the laity Jasper charts how Damian's notion of monastic reform took advantage of the surrounding topography and geography to amplify the sensory aspects of ascetic experiences By focusing on monastic landscapes and land ownership Jasper demonstrates that reform extended beyond abstract ideas Rather reform circulated locally through monastic networks and addressed practical concerns such as property boundaries and rights over water orchards pastures and mills Putting new sources both documentary and archaeological into conversation with monastic charters and Damian's letters Bounded Wilderness reveals the interrelationship of economic practices religious traditions and the natural environment in the idea and implementation of reform
