Public Library,1895 Literary News ,1884 Bulletin of the Public Library of the City of Boston ,1917 From Song to Print T. Hoagwood,2010-03-01 From Song to Print is a study of the major cultural transition from oral forms of art and discourse to the commercial culture of print that happened during the Industrial Revolution Through a discussion of ancient musical forms classical biblical and early modern poetry of song this book explores the typographical simulation of music and oral poetry during the nineteenth century Original and innovative this work shows how the musical writings of Romantic poets such as Wordsworth Coleridge Byron and Keats evoke antique cultures and ancient settings while offering a critique of their own imitative forms and the modern commercial context in which they appear The Politics of Speech in Later Twentieth-Century Poetry William Fogarty,2022-07-30 The Politics of Speech in Later Twentieth Century Poetry Local Tongues in Heaney Brooks Harrison and Clifton argues that local speech became a central facet of English language poetry in the second half of the twentieth century It is based on a key observation about four major poets from both sides of the Atlantic Seamus Heaney Gwendolyn Brooks Tony Harrison and Lucille Clifton all respond to societal crises by arranging reproducing and reconceiving their particular versions of local speech in poetic form The book's overarching claim is that local tongues in poetry have the capacity to bridge aesthetic and sociopolitical realms because nonstandard local speech declares its distinction from the status quo and binds people who have been subordinated by hierarchical social conditions while harnessing those versions of speech into poetic structures can actively counter the very hierarchies that would degrade those languages The diverse local tongues of these four poets marshaled into the forms of poetry situate them at once in literary tradition in local contexts and in prevailing social constructs The Sixty-four Seasons James Russell,2004
