Film Music in 'Minor' National Cinemas Germán Gil-Curiel,2017-08-24 Taking its cue from Deleuze s definition of minor cinema as one which engages in a creative act of becoming this collection explores the multifarious ways that music has been used in the cinemas of various countries in Australasia Africa Latin America and even in Europe that have hitherto received little attention The authors consider such film music with a focus on the role it has played creating problematizing and sometimes contesting the nation Film Music in Minor National Cinemas addresses the relationships between film music and the national cinemas beyond Hollywood and the European countries that comprise most of the literature in the field. Broad in scope, it includes chapters that analyze the contribution of specific composers and songwriters to their national cinemas and the way music works in films dealing with national narratives or issues the role of music in the shaping of national stars and specific use of genres, audience reception of films on national music traditions and the use of music in emerging digital video industries.

Playing with Picturebooks C. Allan, 2012-10-10 Offers new insights into the continuing influence of postmodernism on a wide range of international picture books for children published between 1963 and 2008. Its chapters include metafiction, disruption to narrative conventions, interrogation of truths, historiographic metafiction, difference and ex-centricity, globalisation and media.

Literacy in the Arts Georgina Barton, 2014-04-01 This book explores the many dialogues that exist between the arts and literacy. It shows how the arts are inherently multimodal and therefore interface regularly with literate practice in learning and teaching contexts. It asks the questions: What does literacy look like in the arts? And what does it mean to be arts literate? It explores what is important to know and do in the arts and also what literacies are engaged in through the journey to becoming an artist. The arts for the purpose of this volume include five art forms: Dance, Drama, Media Arts, Music and Visual Arts. The book provides a more productive exploration of the arts-literacy relationship. It acknowledges that both the arts and literacy are open, textured concepts and notes how they accommodate each other, learn about and from each other and can potentially make education better. It is when the two stretch each other that we see an educationally productive dialogic relationship emerge.
