Lotta And The Unitarian Service Committee Story:

Lotta and the Unitarian Service Committee Story Clyde Sanger, 1986 The Westminster Handbook to Women in American Religious History Susan Hill Lindley, Eleanor J. Stebner, 2008-01-01 The Westminster Handbook to Women in American Religious History provides an affordable and accessible reference to over 750 outstanding individual women and women's organizations in American religious history From publisher description Information and Intrigue Colin B. Burke, 2014-05-16 An account of Herbert Field's quest for a new way of organizing information and how information systems are produced by ideology as well as technology In Information and Intrigue Colin Burke tells the story of one man's plan to revolutionize the world's science information systems and how science itself became enmeshed with ideology and the institutions of modern liberalism In the 1890s the idealistic American Herbert Haviland Field established the Concilium Bibliographicum a Switzerland based science information service that sent millions of index cards to American and European scientists Field's radical new idea was to index major ideas rather than books or documents In his struggle to create and maintain his system Field became entangled with nationalistic struggles over the control of science information the new system of American philanthropy powered by millionaires the politics of an emerging American professional science and in the efforts of another information visionary Paul Otlet to create a pre digital worldwide database for all subjects World War I shuttered the Concilium and postwar efforts to revive it failed Field himself died in the influenza epidemic of 1918 Burke carries the story into the next generation however describing the astonishingly varied career of Field's son Noel who became a diplomat an information source for Soviet intelligence as was his friend Alger Hiss a secret World War II informant for Allen Dulles and a prisoner of Stalin Along the way Burke touches on a range of topics including the new entrepreneurial university Soviet espionage in America and further efforts to classify knowledge Canada's Global Villagers Ruth Compton Brouwer, 2013-09-27 Established in 1961 the same year as the US Peace Corps Canadian University Service Overseas CUSO became the first Canadian NGO to undertake development work from a secular stance and in a context of rapid decolonization Over the next twenty five years nine thousand volunteers many of them women travelled to over forty countries and became Canada's face in the Global South Drawing on more than one hundred interviews Brouwer tells the story of how these young Canadians responded to the challenges of underdevelopment Moving beyond their initial naiveté they sought to fit into the host communities that had invited them and to provide social services particularly in education Returning home they brought unique skills to the Canadian International Development Agency CIDA and other development organizations and a new level of global consciousness and cultural diversity to Canadian society At a time when many are concerned about Canada's waning reputation for global humanitarianism this book reminds us of an earlier more hopeful time Rescue and Flight Susan Elisabeth Subak, 2010-05-01 When Susan Elisabeth Subak discovered that members of the Unitarian Church had helped her Jewish father immigrate to the United States she was unaware of the impact the organization had made during World War II After years of research Subak uncovers the little known story of the Unitarian Service Committee which rescued European refugees during World War II and the remarkable individuals who made it happen The Unitarian Service Committee was among the few American organizations committed to helping refugees during World War II The staff who ran the committee assisted those endangered by the Nazi regime from famous writers and artists to the average citizen Part of a larger network of American relief workers the Unitarian Committee helped refugees negotiate the official and legal channels of escape and when those methods failed the more complex underground channels From their offices in Portugal and southern France they created escape routes through Europe to the United States South America and England and rescued thousands often at great personal risk Canada and the Korean War Andrew Burtch, Tim Cook, 2024-05-01 Korea was the first hot war of the Cold War It was also Canada's most significant military engagement of the twentieth century following the two world wars Canada and the Korean War gathers leading scholars to explore the key themes and battles of a seminal yet understudied conflict Canada had little stake and less interest in Korea before 1950 but the risk the conflict posed to the fragile postwar order was deemed too great for the country to stand on the sidelines Alongside their allies more than 30 000 Canadian service personnel fought a determined and skilled enemy The armistice that ended the war left Korea devastated and divided and it remains a dangerous hotspot today This timely collection synthesizes Canadian and international perspectives on a conflict that shaped not only the Canadian armed forces but also the evolving Canada Korea relationship In the process Canada and the Korean War sheds light on how the war has been framed and reframed in public memory Notable American Women with Czechoslovak Roots Miloslav Rechcigl Jr., 2019-09-16 Even though there exist only a few general studies on the subject of Czechoslovak American women this is not at all a reflection of the paucity of work done by these women as this publication demonstrates This monograph is a compendium of notable American women with Czechoslovak roots who distinguished themselves in a particular field or area from the time they first immigrated to America to date Included are not only individuals born on the territory of former Czechoslovakia but also their descendants This project has been approached strictly geographically irrespective of the language or ethnicity Because of the lack of bibliographical information most of the monograph comprises biobibliographical information in which area a plethora of information exists As the reader will discover these women have been involved practically in every field of human endeavor in numbers that surprise On the whole they have been noted for their independent spirit and nonconforming role 100 More Canadian Heroines Merna Forster, 2011-09-07 Following the bestselling 100 Canadian Heroines Merna Forster presents 100 more stories of amazing women who changed our country In this second installment of the bestselling Canadian Heroines series author Merna Forster brings together 100 more incredible stories of great characters and wonderful images Meet famous and forgotten women in fields such as science sport politics war and peace and arts and entertainment including the original Degraffi kids Captain Kool hockey star Hilda

Ranscombe and the woman dubbed the atomic mosquito This book is full of amazing facts and trivia about extraordinary women You ll learn about Second World War heroine Joan Fletcher Bamford who rescued 2 000 Dutch captives from a prison camp in a Sumatran jungle while commanding 70 Japanese soldiers Hilwie Hamdon was the woman behind the building of Canada s first mosque and Frances Gertrude McGill was the crime fighter named the Sherlock Holmes of Saskatchewan Read on and discover 100 more Canadian heroines and how they ve changed our country First Person Valerie Knowles,1988 Cairine Wilson Canada s first female senator was one of nine children raised in an atmosphere of rugged Scots liberalism and strict presbyterianism by affluent Montreal parents in the late nineteenth century She displayed an interest in politics early in life and through her father s position in the Senate was befriended by many notable politicians of the period including Sir Wilfrid Laurier an experience that left a permanent mark on her Her appointment to the Senate in 1930 was a historic and controversial event and launched a political career rife with passion commitment and reform Wilson whose work on behalf of refugees and the world s needy was legendary served in the Senate through some of the stormiest years in Canadian government history First Person is an engaging account of a colourful and powerful politician a fighter whose efforts were recognized by the highest officials in the land and whose sculpted image adorns the foyer of the Canadian Senate Framing Our Past Sharon Anne Cook,Lorna R. McLean,Kate O'Rourke,2001 Reflecting a rethinking of the making of modern Canada this well illustrated anthology of 85 essays reaches beyond ivory tower images and taken for granted assumptions of women s roles This sampling by primarily women contributors drawn from personal and organizational records emphasizes the experiences of diverse women engaged in all spheres of private and public life from a vignette of Native community life to profiles of innovators in many fields Includes a cross referenced essay index 10 x 9 5 format Cook is a professor of education at the U of Ottawa c Book News Inc Cold War Comforts Tarah Brookfield,2012-05-01 Cold War Comforts examines Canadian women s efforts to protect children s health and safety between the dropping of the first atomic bomb in Hiroshima in 1945 and the end of the Vietnam War in 1975 Amid this global insecurity many women participated in civil defence or joined the disarmament movement as means to protect their families from the consequences of nuclear war To help children affected by conflicts in Europe and Asia women also organized foreign relief and international adoptions In Canada women pursued different paths to peace and security From all walks of life and from all parts of the country they dedicated themselves to finding ways to survive the hottest periods of the Cold War What united these women was their shared concern for children s survival amid Cold War fears and dangers Acting on their identities as Canadian citizens and mothers they characterized with their activism the genuine interest many women had in protecting children s health and safety In addition their activities offered them a legitimate space to operate in the traditionally male realms of defence and diplomacy Their efforts had a direct impact on the lives of children in Canada and abroad and influenced changes in Canada s education curriculum immigration laws welfare practices defence policy and international relations Cold War Comforts offers insight into how women employed maternalism nationalism and internationalism in their work and examines shifting constructions of family and gender in Cold War Canada It will appeal to scholars of history child and family studies and social policy
