Modern Postmodern Off The Beaten Path Of Antimodernism:

Modern/postmodern Eric Mark Kramer, 1997 Modern/Postmodern Eric Kramer, 1997-04-16 In this book Eric Kramer introduces his theory of dimensional accrual dissociation to explain the difference between modernity and postmodernity. He also argues that social scientific operational definitions are useful but very often arbitrary. Thus realities based on them are available for creative alternative validities. Kramer then concentrates on the concepts of modernity and postmodernity to analyze how they have been defined and structured and in the end he offers clear definitions of these concepts and a better understanding of the work of those who have shaped these ideas. Kramer applies this position to the concepts of modernity and postmodernity providing a painstaking review of the origins, key thinkers and current status of these ideas. By reviewing the development of these ideas and providing clear definitions of these concepts, Kramer helps scholars and researchers in the social sciences and humanities better understand applications and limitations of these key approaches in late twentieth century scholarship.

An Indian Tantric Tradition and Its Modern Global Revival D.E. Osto, 2020-03-06 This book analyzes the contemporary global revival of Nondual aivism, a thousand year old medieval Hindu religious philosophy. Providing a historical overview of the seminal people and groups responsible for the revival, the book compares the tradition's medieval Indian origins to modern forms which are situated within distinctively contemporary religious, economic and technological contexts. The author bridges the current gap in the literature between insider emic and outsider etic perspectives by examining modern Nondual aivism from multiple standpoints as both a critical scholar of religion and an empathetic participant observer. The book explores modern Nondual aivism in relation to recent scholarly debates concerning the legitimacy of New Age consumptive spirituality, the global spiritual marketplace and the contemporary culture of narcissism. It also analyzes the dark side of the revived tradition and investigates contemporary teachers accused of sexual abuse and illegal financial activities in relation to unique features of Nondual aivism's theosophy and modern scholarship on new religious movements, NRMs and cults. This book shows that although Kashmir aivism has been adopted by certain teachers and groups to market their own brand of High Tantra, some contemporary practitioners have remained true to the system's fundamental tenets and teach authentic, albeit modern forms of Nondual aivism. This book will be of interest to academics in the fields of religion and Asian philosophies, especially South Asian tantric, neo-tantric and yoga philosophies, alternative and New Age spiritualities, religion and consumerism and NRMs and cults. Winner of the inaugural 2021 New Zealand Asia Society Book Award second prize.

The Emerging Monoculture Eric Kramer, 2003-02-28 Kramer brings together experts from a variety of minority backgrounds and from around the world to give their perspectives on the most pervasive ideology today, globalism. The basic premise is that a developed country is different from a developed community. They need not be mutually exclusive but neither is it assumed that they are necessarily consonant. The various essays offer answers to such vital questions as: What does it mean to become a global citizen and What does it mean to be a model minority in a global economy The process of becoming a mainstream person involves being first marginalized with the implication that something is inadequate about one's self The process of assimilationism is manifested as various forms of enforced and or rewarded acculturation With the vast human migration currently underway the notion of assimilation has become a global phenomenon What is occurring Kramer and his colleagues demonstrate is a worldwide shift from the village milieu to the city lifestyle This migration is seen as a polycentric and global phenomenon whereby the promised land is nowhere in particular but instead a way of life and mindset an urban lifestyle This process is far more than a simple change in geography Moving from the village to the cityscape involves a mutation in worldview and self identity Additional questions asked throughout the collection are What set of persuasive assumptions are leading the world in this direction and What might be lost in the process A provocative collection for scholars students and other researchers involved with development studies multiculturalism and urbanization Cognitive Psychotherapy Toward a New Millennium Tullio Scrimali, Liria Grimaldi, 2012-02-02

In the roughly two decades since Aaron T Beck published the now classic Cognitive Therapy of Depression and Michael J Mahoney declared the Cognitive Revolution much has happened What was proposed as the cognitive revolution has now become the zeitgeist and Cognitive Therapy CT has grown exponentially with each passing year A treatment model that was once seen as different strange or even alien is now commonplace In fact many people have allied themselves with CT claiming that they have always done CT Even my psychoanalytic colleagues have claimed that they often use CT After all they say Psychoanalysis is a cognitive therapy Cognitive Therapy or Cognitive Psychotherapy has become a kaleidoscope model of treatment with influences coming from many sources Some of these contributory streams have been information processing behavior therapy Constructivist psychology and dynamic psychotherapy Each of these sources have added color shading and depth to the CT model What was originally uni dimensional in terms of the CT focus on depression has become multidimensional as the CT model has been applied to virtually every patient population treatment setting and therapy context CT must now be seen as a general model of psychotherapy that with modifications can be applied to the broad range of clinical problems and syndromes What has tied these various applications of CT together is the emphasis on a strong grounding in cognitive theory a commitment to empirical support and a dedication to broadening the model Horror at the Drive-In Gary D.

Rhodes, 2015-09-03 Drive in movie theaters and the horror films shown at them during the 1950s 60s and early 70s may be somewhat outdated but they continue to enthrall movie buffs today More than just fodder for the satirical cannons of Joe Bob Briggs and Mystery Science Theatre 3000 they appeal to knowledgeable fans and film scholars who understand their influence on American popular culture This book is a collection of eighteen essays by various scholars on the classic drive in horror film experience Those in Section One emphasize the roles of the drive in theater in the United States and its cultural cousin Australia Section Two examines how horror operated at the drive in the rhetoric used in coming attraction trailers horror film premieres at drive ins double features and the preproduction production and marketing of Last House on the Left

Section Three addresses the effects of the Vietnam War and counter culture on The Texas Chainsaw Massacre and the Cold War on Cat Women of the Moon Section Four explores gender issues and sexuality two of the most common and most important subjects of horror film analysis Section Five covers drive in culture via Hush Hush Sweet Charlotte 2000 Maniacs and the films of Mario Bava Section Six investigates a variety of issues such as the drive in horror film s embrace of DNA the use of cinematic form to create a non Hollywood look in Wizard of Gore and the many different prints and running times of I Drink Your Blood

The Ontological Foundation of Ethics, Politics, and Law Francesco Belfiore, 2013-03-25 The revised edition of The Ontological Foundation of Ethics Politics and Law adds new concepts and discusses the views of additional thinkers The author refers to his basic ontological conception of the human mind or spirit as an evolving conscious triadic entity composed of intellect sensitivity and power each exerting a bidirectional selfish and moral activity Through this approach the notions of good morality society and law are derived from the structure and functioning of the mind It follows that the solutions presented are the results of a discovery and not the consequence of a choice Otherwise stated ethics politics and law are given an ontological foundation For each topic considered Belfiore shows how his thought can reinterpret the views of other philosophers This new edition enriched in concepts and quotations appears as an innovative and highly stimulating contribution to the philosophical branches of ethics politics and law and will be of interest to both graduate students and philosophy scholars

A Pilgrimage to the World of Peace and Nonviolence Chandan Sengupta, It is true that we are passing through a critical situation during which entire society is getting divided into class and section day by day on the basis of different types of superficial parameters Such differences are so prominent that they even hamper the normal acculturation process of early schooling and socialisation of individuals through which newly introduced fellows are allowed to gain a perfect pitching in the multi plural community Service oriented life of modern world is also moving on with such kind of toss and twist giving birth to regional as well as global tension of different degree and radial expansion It is also becoming difficult for us to overcome the situation due to its deeper impression in the mind set of individual coming out from the isolated segments of restricted mechanism of acculturation Main objective of our discussion and analysis is to cultivate a balanced process of educational social as well as economic acculturation which will be suitable enough for ensuring implementation and continuation of world Peace Demystifying Theories in Tourism Research Kelly Bricker,Holly Donohoe,2015-12-04 It often seems that there is more confusion than consensus regarding tourism theory Does tourism have theories it can truly own or does it just borrow from other academic disciplines It can be difficult to understand the theories and conceptual frameworks available and how to apply these ideas to a research endeavour This book reviews theoretical perspectives on tourism from planning and management through marketing and host communities to the tourism consumers themselves Covering issues such as tour guiding rural tourism development and destination image it provides a complete guide to the industry Including pedagogical features throughout this book is an accessible approach to a controversial subject The Triadic Structure of the Mind Francesco Belfiore,2014-05-23 In The Triadic Structure of the Mind Francesco Belfiore begins from the basic ontological conception of the structure and functioning of the mind or spirit as an evolving conscious triad composed of intellect sensitiveness and power each exerting a selfish or moral activity Based on this concept Belfiore has developed a coherent philosophical system through which he offers fresh solutions in the fields of ontology knowledge language aesthetic ethics politics and law The second edition of the book includes a more extensive treatment of the topics addressed in the first edition the introduction of new concepts and the inclusion of additional thinkers whose views have been discussed and reinterpreted Rethinking Culture in Health Communication Elaine Hsieh, Eric M. Reading the Homeless Eungjun Min, 1999-06-30 As one of our country's major social problems homelessness is often in the news The media tend to portray the homeless as drunk stoned crazy or sick individuals a portrayal that is only partly accurate and represents an obstacle to our understanding of the wider social implications of this complex issue This edited collection examines the various ways both verbal and visual in which the homeless have been portrayed by the media from the 1980s to the present day The contributors apply different frameworks ranging from phenomenology to culture studies to analyze the characteristics implications and consequences of the stories and images disseminated by the media

Community-Based Health Interventions in an Institutional Context Steven L. Arxer, John W. Murphy, 2019-09-13 Community Based Health Interventions in an Institutional Context examines challenges of institutionalizing community based health care While the community based or localized model is growing in popularity and importance in the United States in practice it must often be brought in to larger institutions in order to grow to scale The typical goals of an institution standardization formalization and control may be seen as antithetical to those of a community based healthcare provider such as spontaneity customization and flexibility The contributions to this work raise questions about how the community based model can be scaled up through institutions and how institutionalization can be rethought from a bottom up approach They provide not only an overview of community based organizations but also delve into practical topics such as establishing budgets training workers incorporating technology as well as more theoretical topics like goal setting policy effects like the ACA and relationships between patient and community This work will be of interest for researchers interested in exploring the community based health care model as well as practitioners in health care and health policy

The Symbolism of Globalization, Development, and Aging Steven L. Arxer, John W. Murphy, 2012-09-14 This book looks at the symbolic side of globalization development and aging Many of the dimensions that are discussed represent updates of past debates but some are entirely new In particular globalization is accompanied by subtle social imagery that profoundly shapes the way institutions and identities are imagined The process of aging and persons sense of identity is no exception The underlying assumptions that pervade globalization inform how critical dimensions of aging are discussed and institutionalized The application of marketplace imagery for example may impact attempts for holism in how aging is studied and the prospects for human agency during the aging process This book offers a special look into how temporality technology normativity and empiricism structure the symbolic side of globalization and influence dominant images of the aging process Current debates about globalization and aging are expanded by helping readers see the social imagery that is both subtly behind globalization and at the forefront of shaping the aging experience
