The Natural History of Nonsense Bergen Evans,1971 Readings for A History of Anthropological Theory Paul A. Erickson,Liam Donat Murphy,2010-01-01 This comprehensive anthology presents 40 readings that are critical to an understanding of anthropological theory and the development of anthropology as an academic discipline The readings have broad anthropological appeal emphasizing social and cultural anthropology The third edition has been completely revised throughout and organized to work more closely alongside the companion overview text A History of Anthropological Theory It includes six new readings as well as two original essays written by contemporary anthropologists on Why Theory Matters These new essays help ground the more abstract readings in the collection The glossary has been significantly expanded and the discussion questions have been revised The result is a volume that offers not only a strong foundation in the history of the discipline but also a good overview of developments in twentieth and twenty first century anthropological theory including feminist anthropology postmodernity medical anthropology globalization postcolonialism and public anthropology The Natural History of Edward Lear, New Edition Robert McCracken Peck,2021-04-13 Edward Lear is well known as the brilliant writer of nonsense poetry children s books and travel books who popularized the limerick and wrote verses such as The Owl and the Pussycat But few people are aware that Lear was one of the most talented and accomplished painters of natural history subjects in the nineteenth century and worked with British scientists collectors and publishers to make Britain the nexus for scientific investigation and its circulation One of the best ornithological artists of his generation Lear published his first book a monograph on the parrot family at age 18 and established a format that would be followed by decades by such publishers as John Gould with whom he worked closely and often anonymously Over his career Lear produced a multitude of drawings of birds and mammals from around the world for scientific publications public institutions and individual patrons not just of English species but of birds and mammals from Australia New Zealand and the Americas He is also the Lear in the name of the rare species Lear s Macaw In this book Peck has assembled the first comprehensive view of this important part of Lear s career Featuring over 200 illustrations and a foreword by Sir David Attenborough the book also examines the influence Lear had on modern artists such as Walton Ford and Tony Foster This new edition includes a new chapter that addresses Lear s continued fascination with wildlife and the natural world after giving up his career as a scientific illustrator and his fascination with domestic pets from his own beloved cat which he cartooned repeatedly to the portraits of dogs owned by his family and friends alongside thirteen never before published illustrations including fully finished watercolors rough preliminary sketches and whimsical cartoons Inventing Edward Lear Sara Lodge,2018-11-30 Edward Lear the father of nonsense wrote some of the best loved poems in English He was also admired as a naturalist landscape painter travel writer and composer Awkward but funny absurdly sympathetic Lear invented himself as a Victorian character Sara Lodge offers a moving account of one of the era s most influential creative figures LIFE ,1947-05-05 LIFE Magazine is the

Why America's Top Pundits Are Wrong

Catherine Besteman, Hugh Gusterson, 2005-01-17 This absorbing collection of essays subjects such popular commentators as Thomas Friedman Samuel Huntington Robert Kaplan and Dinesh D Souza to cold hard scrutiny and finds that their writing is often misleadingly simplistic culturally ill informed and politically dangerous Mixing critical reflection with insights from their own fieldwork twelve distinguished anthropologists respond by offering fresh perspectives on globalization ethnic violence social justice and the biological roots of behavior They take on such topics as the collapse of Yugoslavia the consumer practices of the American poor American foreign policy in the Balkans and contemporary debates over race welfare and violence against women In the clear vigorous prose of the pundits themselves these contributors reveal the hollowness of what often passes as prevailing wisdom and passionately demonstrate the need for a humanistically complex and democratic understanding of the contemporary world

The Actual Jesus

Haunted Landscapes

Ruth Heholt, Niamh Downing, 2016-11-17 Haunted Landscapes offers a fresh and innovative approach to contemporary debates about landscape and the supernatural Landscapes are often uncanny spaces embroiled in the past associated with absence memory and nostalgia Yet experiences of haunting must in some way always belong to the present they must be felt This collection of essays opens up new and compelling areas of debate around the concepts of haunting affect and landscape Landscape studies supernatural studies haunting and memory are all rapidly growing fields of enquiry and this book synthesises ideas from several critical approaches spectral affective and spatial to provide a new route into these subjects Examining urban and rural landscapes haunted domestic spaces landscapes of trauma and borderlands this collection of essays is designed to cross disciplines and combine seemingly disparate academic approaches under the coherent locus of landscape and haunting Presenting a timely intervention in some of the most pressing scholarly debates of our time Haunted Landscapes offers an attractive array of essays that cover topics from Victorian times to the present
