Natural Patterns Of Human Bonding A Me:

In Search of Human Nature Mary E. Clark, 2005-08-18 In this magisterial new work biologist Mary Clark argues that the Western view of human nature is built around highly atomistic and ideological framework that encourages us to think about the world and ourselves in the wrong way

Bonds of Imperfection Oliver O'Donovan, Joan Lockwood O'Donovan, 2004 Two of today's leading experts on the Christian political tradition plumb significant moments in premodern Christian political thought using them in original and adventurous ways to clarify, criticize and redirect contemporary political perspectives and discussions Drawing on the Bible and the Western history of ideas Oliver and Joan Lockwood O'Donovan explore key Christian voices on the political action, political institutions and political society Covered here are Bonaventure, Thomas Ockham, Wycliff, Erasmus, Luther, Grotius, Barth, Ramsey and key modern papal encyclicals The authors' discussion takes them across a wide range of political concerns from economics and personal freedom to liberal democracy and the nature of statehood Ultimately these insightful essays point to political judgment as the strength of the past theological tradition and its eclipse as the weakness of present political thought

Social Bonds as Freedom Paul Dumouchel, Reiko Gotoh, 2015-08-01 Central to discussions of multiculturalism and minority rights in modern liberal societies is the idea that the particular demands of minority groups contradict the requirements of equality, anonymity and universality for citizenship and belonging The contributors to this volume question the significance of this dichotomy between the universal and the particular, arguing that it reflects how the modern state has instituted the basic rights and obligations of its members and that these institutions are undergoing fundamental transformations under the pressure of globalization They show that the social bonds uniting groups constitute the means of our freedom rather than obstacles to achieving the universal

The Psychology of the Human-Animal Bond Christopher Blazina, Güler Boyraz, David Shen-Miller, 2011-06-22 There have been dramatic increases in the financial, emotional and psychological investment in pets over the past four decades The increasing importance of animal companions in people's lives has resulted in growing emphasis on the human-animal bond within academic literature This book introduces practicing and emerging professionals to this vital subject matter concerning this growing specialty area by providing an essential framework and information through which to consider the unique contextual backdrop of the human-animal bond Such contexts include a wide array of themes including issues of attachment and loss, success and frustration with making and sustaining connections, world views regarding animal ethics, familial history of neglect or abuse and cultural dynamics that speak to the order of things between mankind and nature Adopting a contextual stance will aid mental health professionals in appreciating why and how this connection has become a significant part of everyday life for many As with any other important clinical dynamic, training and preparation are needed to gain competence for professional practice and
