Monsters in Society Rebecca Merkelbach, 2019-11-05 Dragons giants and the monsters of learned discourse are rarely encountered in the Sagas of Icelanders and therefore the general teratological focus on physical monstrosity yields only limited results when applied to them This however does not equal an absence of monstrosity it only means that monstrosity is conceived of differently This book shifts the view of monstrosity from the physical to the social accounting for the unique social circumstances presented in the slendingas gur and demonstrating how closely interwoven the social and the monstrous are in this genre Employing literary and cultural theory as well as anthropological and historical approaches it reads the monsters of the slendingas gur in their literary and socio cultural context demonstrating that they are not distractions from feud and conflict but that they are in fact an intrinsic part of the genre's reimagining of the past for the needs of the present architectural solution at the centre of their social and political philosophy as none of the cities were ever built they have remained as utopian literature Some of the works examined are very well known such as Tommaso Campanella's Civitas Solis while others such as Joseph Michael Gandy's Designs for Cottages are relatively obscure However even with the best known works this volume offers new insights by focusing on the architecture of the cities and how that architecture represents the author's political philosophy It reconstructs the cities through a 3 D computer program ArchiCAD using Artlantis to render Plans sections elevations and perspectives are presented for each of the cities The ten cities are Filarete Sforzina Albrecht Dürer Fortified Utopia Tommaso Campanella The City of the Sun Johann Valentin Andreae Christianopolis Joseph Michael Gandy An Agricultural Village Robert Owen Villages of Unity and Cooperation James Silk Buckingham Victoria Robert Pemberton Queen Victoria Town King Camp Gillette Metropolis and Bradford Peck The World a Department Store Each chapter considers the work in conjunction with contemporary thought the political philosophy and the reconstruction of the city Although these ten cities represent over 500 years of utopian and political thought they are an interlinked thread that had been drawn from literature of the past and informed by contemporary thought and society The book is structured in two parts
