Nature Of Confession Evangelicals And Postliberals In Conversation:

The Nature of Confession George A. Lindbeck, 1996-01-01 Voted one of Christianity Today's 1997 Books of the Year Ours is an age of profound cultural change in which new categories and alliances are bound to arise In theology the liberal strategy has lost support having degenerated into mere anthropology and succumbed to the political agendas of its proponents And while the evangelical movement appears to be gaining ground it is simultaneously suffering an acute identity crisis Currently the postliberal or Yale school movement has found a strong resonance in some mainline denominational circles Its emphasis on the biblical text and Jesus Christ through which all other reality needs to be construed may turn out to be the most significant theological realignment in more than a century Are we witnessing a paradigm shift Can evangelicals and postliberals make common confession Might they even combine forces to reinvigorate the church its theology and its mission for a new era In this groundbreaking book creative evangelical and postliberal thinkers explore exactly how they agree and disagree along a range of issues from epistemology and theological method to doctrinal concerns Evangelical contributors include such significant theologians as Alister McGrath and Gabriel Fackre Postliberal contributors include George Lindbeck a founding father of postliberalism and George Hunsinger the former student and major interpreter of the late Hans Frei another founder of postliberalism In The Nature of Confession we are presented with the beginnings of a robust discussion of real importance to both the academy and the church

Postliberal Theology: A Guide for the Perplexed Ronald T. Michener, 2013-02-14 Postliberal theology is a movement in contemporary theology that rejects both the Enlightenment appeal to a universal rationality and the liberal assumption of an immediate religious experience common to all humanity The movement initially began in the 1980 s with its association to Yale Divinity School Theologians such as Hans Frei Paul Holmer David Kelsey and George Lindbeck were influential and were significantly influenced by theologians such as Karl Barth Clifford Geertz and Ludwig Wittgenstein Postliberalism uses a narrative approach to theology such as developed by Hans Frei and argues that all thought and experience is historically and socially mediated Michener provide the reader with an accessible introductory overview of the origins current thought potential problems and future possibilities of postliberal theology The basic philosophical and theological background are briefly discussed along with the seminal and predominant theologians identified with the movement Michener shows how postliberalism emerges from the context of the postmodern critique of Enlightenment rationalism and empiricism Postliberal theology is extremely critical of classical liberal theology rather than an advancement of its agenda

Pentecostalism, Postmodernism, and Reformed Epistemology Yoon Shin, 2021-12-27 In Pentecostalism Postmodernism and Reformed Epistemology Yoon Shin critically builds on James K A Smith's postmodern Pentecostal epistemology with the aid of Reformed epistemology It takes the reader through an interdisciplinary journey that exposit and illumines the relationship among Pentecostal spirituality continental and analytic philosophy postliberalism moral psychology and philosophy of emotion This work clarifies misunderstandings of Smith in Smith and between continental and analytic epistemology constructively and coherently synthesizing the sources through interdisciplinary analysis and thereby demonstrating the value of mashup philosophy The resulting epistemology strengthens the mostly descriptive epistemology of Smith with the warrant criteria of Alvin Plantinga

Franke, 2001-01-01 Grenz and Franke provide a methodological approach for doing theology in the postmodern world They call for a theological method that moves beyond the Enlightenment way of ordering and understanding information foundationalism They propose a theological method that takes seriously the Spirit tradition and contemporary culture while stressing trinitarian structure community and eschatology

Inerrancy and the Spiritual Formation of Younger Evangelicals Carlos R. Bovell, 2007-03-01 In Inerrancy and the Spiritual Formation of Younger Evangelicals readers are urged to consider their pastoral responsibilities toward students Evangelical leaders and teachers in particular should be more sensitive to the fact that not all younger evangelicals are convinced of the Bible's inerrancy Some are earnestly searching for an orthodox alternative but in the process becoming spiritually unravelled As responsible shepherds of God's people evangelical leaders must better understand the negative effect of presenting inerrancy as a doctrine crucial for faith

Narrative Apologetics Alister E. McGrath, 2019-10-15 The Bible is a narrative the story of God's creation humankind's fall and God's plan of redemption And it is filled with countless smaller stories that teach us about people history and the nature of God It's no surprise that God would choose to reveal himself to us in story after all he hardwired us for story Despite this we so often attempt to share our faith with others not through story but through systems arguments and talking points methods that appeal only to our mind and neglect our imagination and our emotions In this groundbreaking book scholar and author Alister McGrath lays a foundation for narrative apologetics Exploring four major biblical narratives enduring stories from our culture such as Tolkien's The Lord of the Rings and Lewis's The Chronicles of Narnia and personal narratives from people such as Augustine of Hippo and Chuck Colson McGrath shows how we can both understand and share our faith in terms of story

The Bridge Michael W. McGowan, 2015-05-04 Philosophers of religion and theologians have long wrestled with the concept of revelation Does God reveal truth to human subjects primarily through sacred texts or audible voices Through inner experiences or pronouncements of religious leaders What is the relationship between the truths given in revelation and those discoverable by reason Revelation is a challenge not only to scholars but also for churchgoers How can the same God command one person to do one thing and another to do something quite different In The Bridge Michael McGowan explores how a number of great twentieth and twenty first century thinkers understand the concept of revelation Using insights from their work and some recent advances in literary theory and communication studies he constructs a model of revelation in which symbol and narrative figure heavily Ancient ideas are given new life in this contemporary explication of the nature of revelation God as the Revealer and revelation s implications
