Reconnecting Aestheticism and Modernism Bénédicte Coste, Catherine Delyfer, Christine Reynier, 2016-10-04 Charting the period that extends from the 1860s to the 1940s this volume offers fresh perspectives on Aestheticism and Modernism By acknowledging that both movements had a passion for the new it goes beyond the alleged divide between Modernism and its predecessors Rather than reading the modernist credo Make it New as a desire to break away from the past the authors of this book suggest reading it as a continuation and a reappropriation of the spirit of the New that characterizes Aestheticism Basing their arguments on recent reassessments of Aestheticism and Modernism and their articulation contributors take up the challenge of interrogating the connections continuities and intersections between the two movements thus revealing the working processes of cultural and aesthetic change so as to reassess the value of the new for each Attending to well known writers such as Waugh Woolf Richardson Eliot Pound Ford Symons Wilde and Hopkins as well as to hitherto neglected figures such as Lucas Malet L S Gibbon Leonard Woolf or George Egerton they revise assumptions about Aestheticism and Modernism and their very definitions This collection brings together international scholars specializing in Aestheticism or Modernism who push their analyses beyond their strict period of expertise and take both movements into account through exciting approaches that borrow from aesthetics philosophy or economics The volume proposes a corrective to the traditional narratives of the history of Aestheticism and Modernism revitalizing definitions of these movements and revealing new directions in aestheticist and modernist studies
