Nature Of Adolescent Judgment:

The Nature of Adolescent Judgement Edwin Arthur Peel,1971 The nature of adolescent judgement Edwin Arthur Peel, The Development of Judgment and Decision Making in Children and Adolescents Janis E. Jacobs,Paul A. Klaczynski,2006-04-21 This book focuses on adolescent decision making This book has both basic and applied dimensions and cuts across developmental social cognitive and educational psychology Because of these components it will be of interest to the professional market The Oxford Handbook of Juvenile Crime and Juvenile Justice Barry C. Feld,Donna M. Bishop,2012-01-12 State of the art critical reviews of recent scholarship on the causes of juvenile delinquency juvenile justice system responses and public policies to prevent and reduce youth crime are brought together in a single volume authored by leading scholars and researchers in neuropsychology developmental and social psychology sociology history criminology criminal justice and law American Juvenile Justice Franklin E. Zimring,2005-10-06 American Juvenile Justice is a definitive volume for courses on the criminology and policy analysis of adolescence The focus is on the principles and policy of a separate and distinct system of juvenile justice The book opens with an introduction of the creation of adolescence presenting a justification for the category of the juvenile or a period of partial responsibility before full adulthood Subsequent sections include empirical investigations of the nature of youth criminality and legal policy toward youth crime At the heart of the book is an argument for a penal policy that recognizes diminished responsibility and a youth policy that emphasizes the benefits of letting the maturing process continue with minimal interruption In this updated and expanded second edition Zimring has included four new chapters with examinations on important topics including US Supreme Court decisions of life sentences for minors the elected use of juvenile courts over criminal court punitive sex offender registration for juveniles and appropriate tactics for juvenile justice reform Individual Differences in Judgement and Decision-Making Maggie E. Toplak,Joshua Weller,2016-11-25 Children face an overwhelming amount of information and a range of different choices every day and so there has never been a more important time to understand how children learn to make judgments and decisions in our modern world Individual Differences in Judgment and Decision Making presents cutting edge developmental research to advance our knowledge and understanding of how these competencies emerge Focusing on the role of individual differences the text provides a complementary theoretical approach to understanding the development of judgment and decision making skills and how and why these competencies vary within and between different periods of development Sampling a diverse set of developmental paradigms and measures as well as considering typical and atypically developing samples this volume provokes thinking about how we can support our children and youth to help them make better choices Drawing on the expertise of a range of international contributors this book will be of interest to students and researchers of thinking and reasoning from both cognitive and developmental psychology backgrounds Concept Development in the Secondary School Peter Langford,2016-03-10 Originally published in 1987 this book introduces the reader to work on the intellectual development of adolescents relevant to the secondary school teacher It covers the teaching of English history geography economics politics legal studies physics chemistry biology and mathematics Although it emphasises the continuing importance of Piaget's thought the book aims to introduce readers to the non Piagetian research that had taken place in recent years
